SAILORS FROZEN LASHED TO MASTS

By Associated Press.

Wellfleet, Mass., February 17.—Captain Gaiva and four seamen of the Italian bark Caspagnia, perished when the vessel was thrown on the outer bar of Cape Cod near the Marconi wireless station this morning.

Wellfleet, Mass., Feb. 17.—Four men perished when the Italian bark Caspagnia struck on the outer bar of Cape Cod, one and one-half miles south of Coshoons Hollow Life Saving Station today. Seven seamen, all nearly unconscious from exposure were brought ashore by the life savers.

The frozen corpses of Captain Gaiva and three sailors were left in the rigging where they had lashed themselves to avoid being carried overboard by the sea.

The Caspagnia struck the bar in a blinding snow storm early this morning while a 60-mile gale was blowing. She was cited by the life saving station at dawn, 600 yards off with the turf pouring over her decks and threatening to pound her to pieces. The life saving crew set up guns and shot three lines across her decks but the sailors were so cold and numb that they could not handle the breeches buoy tackle.

The gale moderated to 30 miles this morning but the surf was so high that the life savers had to wait before they could reach the vessel with their boats. All the rescued were so overcome by exposure that they could not give a coherent account of the disaster.

VESSEL HANGING ON BRINK

By Associated Press.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 17.—One hundred and ten passengers including men and women were thrown into a panic when the Queen City, the largest packet on the Ohio River, rammed a pier at the head of Ohio Falls, opposite this city, after the current had almost carried her over the falls.

Life saving crew had great difficulty in preventing many half dressed people from throwing themselves into the icy waters. Efforts will be made today to pull the Queen City off the pier where the current carried her.

Efforts were still being made this afternoon to release the Queen City. Her cargo is being removed because there is eight feet of water in her hold.

OBSEQUIES OVER BACON VERY SIMPLE

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—The funeral services of Senator Bacon of Georgia were held today in the Senate chamber. There were no speeches of eulogy, no music, and no flowers, except one design—a tribute of the Senate which was placed on the coffin.

The ceremonies were impressive in their simplicity and the place, with the dignity of those assembled to honor the dead, lent added impressiveness. Seats on the floor were reserved for President Wilson, members of his cabinet, the Chief Justice and associate Justices, members of the Diplomatic Corps and others.

The members of the immediate family and the officiating clergyman remained in the vice-president's room until time for the services, when they were conducted to their seats.

The Episcopal burial service was in charge of Bishop Albert Harding, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal church, followed by the benediction by the Chaplain.

At the conclusion of the services members of the Capitol Police bore the body to the marble room where it remained until escorted to the railway station for the journey to Atlanta. The body will lie in state at the Georgia state capitol until taken to Macon for interment.

WORDY BATTLE

By Associated Press.

Columbus, February 17.—"You're a liar!" shouted Representative Warnes of Holmes county, at Representative Cooper, of Mahoning county, when the latter accused Warnes of voting "yes" for an absent member. Warnes started toward Cooper but friends stepped in between them. When Cooper asked Warnes a direct question as to the truth of the charge Warnes did not answer. This incident was the liveliest thing occurring during the closing day. It happened after the King bill, providing a flat rate of $5.00 for automobile license passed, and during the roll call to make the bill an emergency measure. The finishing touches are being given to the work and it is expected that adjournment will be taken before night. Governor Cox is planning to leave this afternoon for Florida, on a 10-day vacation.

TEAMS BUCKLING DOWN TO THE WORK

Deep Interest Centers on Wednesday's Reports, and Some Surprises Are Promised—All Workers Urged to Be Present at Noonday Meal Tomorrow.

The first reports made public by the teams who are now engaged in securing funds in the Y. M. C. A. clean-up campaign, show contributions reaching $1523, and it is hinted that some splendid donations will be recorded tomorrow. In fact Mr. Will Campbell, who is captain of one of the teams, stated that he believed his team could promise at least one $1,000 subscription tomorrow. Other teams are preparing to make some good reports tomorrow, and it is believed that the total amounts returned will give much impetus to the clean-up campaign now in full swing. About one score of business men assembled at the Y. M. C. A. dining room for luncheon today, and tomorrow every man on the various teams is urged to be present without fail. Several of the team made no report

Tuesday, owing to the fact that some of their members were either ill, out of town or after funds and could not be present and turn in the results of their labors.

The workers report a ready response from practically all citizens who have been approached, all of them realizing the great value the Y. M. C. A. is to the city and county. All of the workers who were present Tuesday showed a quiet but determined spirit in the work, and the words of Mr. Campbell expressed the feeling of all when he said: "We are going to win!"

The teams are now buckling down to real work, and all will await with interest the reports returned tomorrow.

Following is a list of the captains and their assistants:

Page, the latter an Ohio school teacher. The Besley expedition crossed the country from Lima, Peru, and went down the Amazon to its mouth. COMPLAINT OVER BOOST MADE IN EXPRESS RATES

Charge Made That Much Heralded Cut in Express Rates Comes Only in Small Packages and That Marked Increase Has Been Made in Rate on Packages Weighing Over 50 Pounds.

A great cry has been raised over the advance made in express rates on packages weighing over fifty pounds, and a protest has arisen from all over the land, according to reports in the Cincinnati Enquirer, extracts from which are given below. The express companies did make a sweeping reduction on small packages, in order to compete with the Parcel Post prices, but the "decrease" on packages weighing over fifty pounds is apparently what has caused the complaint.

The following excerpts will give some idea of the extent of the protest against increased rates.

Kansas City jobbers in the fruit and produce trade in Kansas City have suddenly awakened to the fact that the so-called horizontal reduction in express rates, which went into effect February 1, has proved to be little less than a boomerang. Indeed, there are those who declare that the new rates are, in fact, the biggest piece of buncho-steering the American people ever have been put up against.

The new rates have been in effect less than two weeks yet there are many instances already where the cost of transportation by express has been increased all the way from 12 1/2 to 83 1-3 per cent. In some cases the cost has been increased to such an extent that the business will be wholly destroyed.

Reports to The Packer indicate that the actual condition of affairs has been as much of a surprise to the business men of one section of the country as to another. In fact every body had been lulled into the belief that a reduction in express rates all along the line, was at hand, when the contrary is the result.

True, there have been a great many cases in which the rates have been reduced, but the commodities involved generally have been those which have come into open competition with rates established by the parcel post.

CINCINNATI PROTESTS.

Cincinnati members of the fruit and produce trade are "up in the air" over the increase in express rates on packages weighing over 50 pounds, which went into effect February 1. The new rates show an advance of all the way from 25 to 100 per cent in many instances and dealers declare that unless the rates are put back to the old schedule their business will be greatly hampered.

SHIPPERS UP IN ARMS.

St. Louis, Mo.—The express companies are exploiting themselves loudly to the general public on the recent reduction in express rates which went into effect February 1, but the real facts in the case are that the rates have been decreased on small packages that come in competition with the parcel post, but have not been decreased on butter, eggs, poultry and other produce. On the contrary they have been increased on interstate shipments. Shipments of these commodities within the state of Missouri remain practically unchanged.

MEMPHIS MAKES COMPLAINT.

Memphis, Tenn.—Local handlers of produce and vegetables are up in arms against the new express rates and they assert that instead of them being cheaper they are from 10 to 65 per cent higher as a rule. The principal changes were made on rates for eggs and poultry from sections on which the local trade rely for the bulk of their stuff. For instance, it now costs about 72 cents a case to bring eggs from Missouri points to Memphis, whereas the old rate was 54 cents. The distance is something over 200 miles. From western Arkansas points rates have been raised.

PROTESTS FROM A SHIPPER.

The much advertised cut rates of the express companies are now in force and we see how the companies expect to make enough so their business and property will not be confiscated.

From this you will see that our rates have been advanced 70 per cent in last 18 months.

SAME THING IN XENIA.

The express companies are making a great noise over the reduction they have made in their rates. They have to Main, California, and Florida, and other far distant points, says the Xenia Gazette. But their patrons send and receive hundreds of packages from Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, and other nearby places while comparatively few to the more distant cities. The Gazette uses the express companies every day in the year. Yesterday's expenses will illustrate. We received a shipment of 107 pounds from Cincinnati, and paid 81 cents charges. This same package would have cost 54 cents before February first. The rate from Cincinnati was then 50c per 100. Now it is 54 cents per 100. This is our experience every day.

On the other hand, had we ordered this package from San Francisco we would have saved $3.50 over former rates. On long hauls and on packages that may be sent by Parcel Post a reduction has been made, but on short hauls and packages too heavy for mailing we all catch it. The great "reduction" in rates will undoubtedly produce hundreds of thousands of dollars additional profit for the express companies.

Hartman Theater

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 23RD.

John Drew returns to the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Wednesday, and Thursday, Feb. 25th and 26th, with two new plays of the kind that once made theatergoing a pleasure for the cultivated. Mr. Drew has long enjoyed the reputation of being the best actor of light comedy on the American stage, and in his latest successes in which he will appear here, he discloses new phases of his brilliant art. Charles Frohman, under whose direction he appears, had a happy inspiration in choosing for him two contrasting plays—"The Tyranny of Tears," by C. Haddon Chambers, and "The Will," by J. M. Barrie. In the first mentioned play Mr. Drew gives one of those finished studies of a man of the world for which he is so adept. In the latter play, which is written in three scenes, Mr. Drew successively shows three distinct portraits of the same man, each at a different epoch of his life.

Never before has Mr. Drew so absolutely and skillfully effected his own personality in characterizing the dominant figure in "The Will." The success of this double bill in New York was most emphatic and it is cause for congratulation that local theatergoers will be privileged with an opportunity to witness the same program interpreted by Mr. Drew and his artistic associates.

Neil O'Brien and his great American Minstrels, all new and better than ever, will be the attraction at the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Friday and Saturday, February 27-28, with matinee Saturday.

Mr. O'Brien is surrounded with an amazing array of talent including many of the highest salaried comedians, singers and special feature acts on the minstrel stage. Neil O'Brien needs no endorsement. For years he has entertained thousands with his original wit and won their admiration for the good clean fun with which his work always permeates. The company is the largest minstrel organization traveling and includes in addition to the star, such notable comedians as Eddie Ross, Eddie Mazier, Oets Dezel, Major Nowak, George Faust and a score of others. The company also contains several soloists who have won names for themselves, notably Ward Barton, the famous Yodler, Al Fontaine, Jas. Barardi, Leslie Berry, Georgie Hagen and Walter Lindsey.

PLUNGES 500 FEET TO DOOM

Naval Aviator Murray Drops Into Pensacola Bay.

Pensacola, Fla., Feb. 17.—Lieutenant J. M. Murray of the naval aviation corp dashed to his death while flying over Pensacola bay. His machine dipped at an altitude of 500 feet and, gaining speed with each moment, struck the water in the middle of the bay with terrific force, instantly killing the aviator and wrecking the aeroplane.

Lieutenant Murray was one of several of the navy aviators out for flights. He remained out longer than any of the others and was headed back towards the city, after flying over the gulf, when the fatal accident occurred.

Lieutenant Murray was among the experienced aviators who came here four weeks ago, and he had made several flights with the various naval machines and was considered one of the expert aviators of the corps.

MEXICAN PREDICTS HUERTA'S FINISH

Mobile, Ala., Feb. 17.—A coup d'etat or the abdication of General Huerta may be expected in Mexico City within the next 30 days or less time, according to Colonel Ramon Rodriguez, a retired officer of the Mexican army. Rodriguez was one of the instructors of Chapultepec military academy during the last year of the administration of General Porfirio Diaz as president of Mexico.

SNOWED UNDER

New York, Feb. 17.—The tie-up of the streets of the city is so complete that if a bad fire occurred it might easily turn into a conflagration of any size. Fire Commissioner Adamson asked all citizens to guard carefully against fires. The snow chokes the streets so completely that fire apparatus would take a great deal longer to get to a flame and most of the hydrants in the city are packed under snow.

Commissioner Featherstone of the street cleaning department admitted the danger and said that he was doing all he could to get conditions back to normal for the firemen. The firemen themselves were sent out clearing the snow away from the hydrants.

ENDS BANK WAR

Sandusky, O., Feb. 17.—A banking war which has extended over a period of 10 years was ended at Berlin Heights, Erie county, when the Berlin Heights Banking company took over the Citizens' Banking company.

A Candid Opinion.

Mr. Harris had been considering for some time the advisability of approaching his son's schoolteacher in regard to that young man's studies. He was sure William was not getting along as fast as he should, and this fact worried the father greatly.

He was greeted kindly by the teacher, and after a few preliminary questions the father inquired:

"What branch do you consider the most profitable for my son William, Mr. Flint?"

"I can hardly say, but I think a good, stout blue beech or a long, sinuous birch would do him as much good as any."—Lippincott's.

The Lincoln Highway

Each year as the birthday of the great Lincoln is celebrated there arises unanimously from the people of the United States the wish to show him honor in the form of permanent tribute.

No other hero of our country has ever aroused this feeling of personal love desiring to perpetuate itself as has the immortal Liberator.

Realizing this deeply implanted feeling for Abraham Lincoln, and the fact that there could be no memorial too great for the American people to erect in his honor, the project of a Lincoln Highway, connecting New York with San Francisco, by means of a splendid broad highway, bearing the name of the great American, is suggested as the best possible memorial.

It would indeed be a memorial of the people and for the people. A tremendous majority of the American people would make use of it, at least at some period of their lives, and derive direct benefit, while every American citizen would feel personal pride in a "Lincoln Highway" in which he had his part.

Dr. Hubert M. Skinner, historian and educator, is an ardent advocate of the building of a Lincoln Highway such as would stand the wear of centuries, so that "after 2000 years have passed, when buildings now existing shall have disappeared, the Abraham Lincoln Highway will remain, beautified by myriads of memorial statues, arches and like adornments, the accumulation of the ages along its course."

Whether this idea is practical enough to be carried to successful completion remains to be seen, but undoubtedly the building of a splendid highway across our continent, such as has been under consideration for some time, would be a worthy memorial, in which Americans would take supreme delight.

Dr. Skinner asserts that the greatest memorials of the ancient world were edifices, monumental structures and highways.

"Of the edifices the very few that remain are generally in ruins. The arches, monoliths and statues that survive, defaced by the hand of time, awaken a mournful interest in the beholder. The great highways of the ancient world, as serviceable today as in the thousands of years that have passed over them remain, with their unwritten history of blessing to every age and every year and every day since their inception. Measured by their influence upon civilization and upon human happiness, they are the greatest physical works of man.

Intimately connected with every emotion of the human heart are the great highways; interwoven are they with history, biography, drama, poem and romance.

As travelers abroad all know the Appian Way still leads out of Rome, the smooth, level, paved road upon which triumphal processions entered Rome in its golden days, and over which the Apostle Paul passed on his noble missions. It remains the great highway that it was during the early centuries.

In Britain, the home of many American ancestors, the constructive Romans built other highways, defying time in their preserved condition.

Extending through the then almost trackless Britain, as historians tell us, was built a broad magnificent roadway, piercing the densest forests, spanning the rivers, rising in a causeway above the marshes, cutting through the hills; this noble way above the marshes, cutting through the hills; this noble way so preserved its level that it became known as the "Tra-dum", and when the Angles and the Saxons came to England they gave it the name of "Watling". To this day Watling street in England is a great artery of locomotion. But small fragments remain of Hadrian's Roman wall in Britain, while Watling street will remain as long as England shall be inhabited.

These great highways of the ancient world bear witness down the ages to the colossal conceptions, the marvelous enterprise of the Romans, both at home and abroad. It was the day of slaves and war, hostages and immense numbers of them were put to work on the highways upon which their labor was of permanent benefit.

Far off from those days, with conditions totally different, yet these great roads offer suggestions for the building of a Lincoln Highway which would be even a greater marvel than the works of the constructive Romans in the difficulties to be overcome before its smooth highway could cross mountain and desert to link together the Goddess of Liberty of the East with the Golden Gate of the West.

Poetry For Today

THE GOLDEN SIDE.

There is many a rest in the road of life

If we only would stop to make it;
And many a tone from the better land
If the querulous heart would take it.

To the sunny soul, that is full of hope
And whose beautiful trust ne'er faileth,

The grass is green and the flowers are bright,

Though the wintry storm prevail-eth.

Better to hope, though the clouds hang low,

And to keep the eyes still lifted,
For the sweet blue sky will soon peep through

When the ominous clouds are rifted!

There was never a night without a day,

Or an evening without a morning;

And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes,

Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life

Which we pass in our idle pleasure,
That is richer far than the jeweled crown,

Or the miser's hoarded treasure;

It may be the love of a little child,
Or a mother's prayers to Heaven,

Or only a beggar's grateful thanks
For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life

A bright and golden filling,
And to do God's will with a ready heart,

And hands that are swift and willing

Than to snap the delicate, minute threads

Of our curious lives asunder,

And then blame Heaven for the tangled ends,

And sit and grieve and wonder.

LINER DRIVEN ON THE ROCKS

LINER HITS ROCKS, BUT IT PULLS OFF

Lives of Five Hundred Passengers Were Imperiled.

New York, Feb. 17.—The steamship Roma of the Fabre line (French) escaped from the rocky reefs of the island of No Man's Land after her company of 500 were in grave danger of death for more than four hours. Losing her course in a northwest gale and blinding snowstorm, the liner hung on the rocks for hours while three revenue cutters raced towards her. She proceeded to Providence.

The revenue cutter Achusnet, which started from New Bedford, was the nearest of the relief ships to the Roma. She was sent through Vineyard sound in the midst of a blinding snowstorm.

The Roma was bound for New York from Lisbon and the Azores, touching at Providence. Unfortunately she got too much to the eastward in steaming in for Narragansett bay and missed her way because of the blinding gale and high seas which would tend to drive her off her course. Many of the passengers on the ship are Portuguese from Lisbon and Bravas from the Azores.

LINER DISABLED

New York, Feb. 17.—A wireless message from the disabled French transatlantic liner Niagara says that she is 130 miles southwest of Broadway, bound east, under her own steam. She is escorted by two vessels whose names are not given.

VESSELS IN DISTRESS

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 17.—With a freezing northwest gale sweeping the coast, shipping is experiencing its worst storm of the winter. Reports of unknown vessels in distress were received here and the revenue cutter Onondaga has gone out to help them. The cutter brought in the schooner Mary E. Palmer with her foremast torn away and her sails torn to threads. The Onondaga hurried back to sea to assist two steamers reported in trouble below the capes.

Blooms but to Die.

The talipot palm (Corypha umbraculifera) of Ceylon, whose leaves are put to such numerous uses by the Cingalese, bears fruit but once during its life. This elegant tree measures about ten feet around the trunk and attains a height of about 180 feet. The flowers, the appearance of which presages death to the tree, are inclosed in a tall spathe, which bursts with a loud report, disclosing a huge plume of beautiful blossom. The inflorescence is succeeded by equally conspicuous bunches of fruit. When these have ripened the tree withers rapidly and in the course of a fortnight may be seen prostrate and decaying on the spot it adorned.

We noticed a nice shower of rain on Friday which refreshed the thirsty earth, revived vegetation and cooled the heated atmosphere. Thank Allah for the blessed rain, but Heavens! if the weather continues to increase with heat until August, everything will be melted.

NEWSY NOTES

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

The residents of Pike county are greatly worked up over an epidemic of small pox that is now raging in their county. Hundreds have been exposed and already in the little village at Idaho 15 cases are being treated.

It's a long hard winter for the habitual users of cocaine and morphine as the state authorities are beginning a state wide campaign enforcing the statutes prohibiting physicians from issuing prescriptions for these drugs. Fines and jail sentences have been imposed on the doctors in several instances in Cincinnati, Cleveland and Columbus. Persons addicted, fiends for the drugs, unable to break the habit will be sent to state institutions and given special treatment.

Owners of fruit trees, either an orchard or a single tree, must spray before May 15, or the owner's neglect lays them liable to a stiff fine. The law, passed in 1910, required spraying only when 10 or more trees were owned by one person. The new law is much more inclusive and reads as follows:

"Whoever being owner or manager of an orchard, or of one or more fruit trees, shall spray or cause to be sprayed said trees one or more times during the May 15, with some suitable preparation for the destruction of the San Jose, oyster or scurvy scale."

For violation or neglect, a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100 is provided and the prosecuting attorney is charged with the duty of seeing the law's enforcement.

In an effort to stem the tide of the bibulous and thirsty journeying from Cincinnati, the dry and tight, to towns across the river, a policeman is stationed on the approaches of the bridges with instructions to right about face all persons crossing the bridge in a state of intoxication.

DRAWS PROTEST FROM ITALIANS

Washington, Feb. 17.—Secretary of State Bryan conferred with Senator Smith of South Carolina, chairman of the immigration committee, regarding the pending immigration bill before that body. Certain administrative features of the bill, which have already brought a protest from Italy, were discussed, and the senator's visit was followed by one from the Italian ambassador. The Italian objection is directed at the provision in the bill by which American medical inspectors are to be placed on foreign liners bringing immigrants to the United States. Italy maintains an inspection service of her own on all Italian vessels carrying immigrants, and resents the endeavor of the United States to override her supervision of emigration traffic.

DARING ROBBERY

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. PROGRESSIVE STAND TAKEN BY M. E. CHURCH

Official Board Votes to Expend $5000
in Overhauling and Re-Decorating the Church Before the Coming of the Annual Conference.

ALSO SELECTS LADY PASTORAL ASSISTANT

Letter Step Regarded as Greatest Action Taken in Years Toward Increasing the Efficiency of the Church—Miss Mazie Priddy, of Greenfield, Named.

The official board of Grace M. E. church at a meeting held Monday night unanimously decided upon two very important steps, both being matters which mean much to the entire congregation. The first has to do with the redecoration of the interior of the splendid church edifice, and the action in ordering the work to be done is in accord with the report of a committee appointed by Rev. F. E. Ross two months ago, to make a thorough survey of the conditions.

The committee recommended a complete overhauling of the church interior, and cited six main points, covering redecoration of the ceilings and walls of the auditorium and Sunday school room, steel ceiling and prism glass windows for the basement, heavy Brussels carpet for the auditorium and Sunday school room, re-varnishing and cleaning of all pews and woodwork, a re-arrangement of the entire lighting system and the probable enlargement of the choir loft to greatly increase its capacity. A modern vacuum cleaner plant will also be installed.

The committee estimates that the cost of these improvements will be at least $5000.

Bids for the work will be received and competition will be open. Artists are already making sketches and plans and no time will be lost, as the Board is very anxious that everything be complete and in readiness before the meeting of the annual Ohio Conference, which will be held in Grace church next fall.

The meeting of the official board members was characterized by great enthusiasm and unanimity, and the great growth and prosperous condition of the church was freely commented upon.

The second great step was the adoption of a motion empowering the board to employ a general pastoral and clerical assistant for Rev. Ross for a period of four months at a salary of $60 per month.

This is regarded as one of the greatest steps in the direction of efficiency yet taken by Grace church, and is recognized as the opening wedge to the installation of more efficient, permanent plans for advancing the interests of the church. The assistant will assist the pastor, look after the books and records, check up the Sunday school work, visit the sick and make calls on the members generally.

For this position Miss Mazie Priddy, of Greenfield, a sister of Mrs. Ralph Penn, of this city, will be chosen. She is a woman well fitted for the work, having received several years' training in the Methodist Training School and Home for Deaconesses at Chicago. She will begin her work about the middle of the coming June, and the results will be carefully watched by both the church leaders and congregation.

The determination of the official board to proceed along the lines mentioned are in line with the progressive policies of the church and heartily endorsed by Rev. Ross under whose most successful pastorate of about 16 months nearly 350 additions to the church have been recorded. Grace church is rapidly becoming one of the leading churches in the Ohio Conference.

CHANGE IN TAXATION LAW EFFECTIVE APRIL NEXT YEAR

The change made by the Ohio legislature in the taxation laws, whereby tax lien day is changed from the first Monday in February to the first Monday in April, is not effective until next year, and the work of the assessors this year will continue as it has started.

Confirmation of the above statement was made by District Assessor Dunn, when asked concerning the matter Tuesday morning.

The change in the law was made at the recommendation of Gov. Cox, who, in his speech at Good Hope last week, first announced his intention of asking the Legislature to change the date to April so that it will not work a hardship on the farmers, who, on the first Monday in February, usually have large herds of cattle or hogs, or both, on hands to be disposed of before April first.

It has been pointed out that not only is the change more fair toward the farmer, but the time of year makes the work of the assessors more pleasant and effective, and they can complete their work in shorter time than where hampered by the severe winter weather.

A number of well known local farmers who have been queried upon the subject have expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the change in the law, and believe that it was a step toward justice to all when the tax lien day was changed from February to April.

IS RECOVERING VERY SLOWLY

Mr. George Haynes, local furniture dealer who has been confined to the Mt. Carmel hospital for several weeks, is now slowly recovering his lost strength, and is able to eat a few solids after a 32-day diet of milk.

It will still be several weeks, in all probability, before he is able to return to his home in this city.

This is the second time he has been in the hospital within the past year.

HE WANTED OFF AT MT. STERLING

Washington citizens who returned from Columbus on the evening train Monday reported an amusing incident which occurred at Mt. Sterling, where a man sat and watched the other passengers get off and was so intent in using his eyes that he himself forgot to get off until the train was moving.

Then he hurried through the car and the brakeman signalled the engineer to stop. The signal failed to reach the engineer. Again he signalled, all the while trying to keep the now thoroughly excited man from leaping from the train.

By applying the emergency brake, he succeeded in forcing the train to a standstill and the man leaped off, landing upon the slippery embankment. For a moment he fought to regain his balance, and then rolled over and over until he landed against the fence at the bottom of the embankment.

As the train pulled away he arose, shook the snow from his clothing, and stood and looked as if he only half understood his sudden departure from the train into the snow drift.

RECEPTION GIVEN THE NEW MEMBERS

Fully 300 persons took part in the big reception tendered the new members of the Christian church Monday evening, and 110 converts were present.

The meeting opened with evangelistic services, followed by baptismal services in which a class of six were baptized. A fellowship meeting came next and all of the new members were lined up and a general old-time handshaking took place. A short program of recitations and song added pleasure to the evening. Before closing, refreshments were served and the meeting ended with prayer by Rev. Boblitt.

A large crowd escorted Rev. Boblitt to the train and held a song service at the depot before the evangelist left for his home.

MINISTER GETS SALARY INCREASE

For the second time during his five years pastorate in this city, Rev. A. W. West's services at the First Baptist church have been recognized by an increase in salary, the last increase being made at a recent meeting of the official body of the church.

During his pastorate Rev. West has made a great many friends in this and adjoining towns, and his efforts have been rewarded by a greatly increased membership and interest in the local church.

LADIES' PHYSICAL

TRAINING CLASS.
The Ladies' Physical Training class of one hundred members is doing splendid work under the efficient direction of Y. M. C. A. Director McClung. Beside the regular work there is much interest shown in volley ball. Teams are being organized and some exciting games are promised.

The Executive Board, at a recent meeting, employed Miss Gladys Butcher pianist for the class. If there are any ladies interested in the work and who wish to join the class, they may do so by giving their names to the secretary and paying an entrance fee of fifty cents to the treasurer.

Dues are payable the last week of each month. Miss Vera Veal, treasurer, will receive dues at the Midland National bank for the benefit of those who cannot conveniently pay at class. Withdrawn members may be reinstated by payment of back dues. Classes meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 and Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 4:00, at the Armory hall.

SCHOOLS FAILURES.—HILL.

Inaccuracy and Impracticability Are Chief Charges.

St. Paul.—"Our common and high schools are dismal failures. Accuracy is not taught in the schools, and accuracy is the main essential to success," said James J. Hill at the annual banquet of the Northwestern Yale Alumni association. Continuing he said: "The time must come when public educational institutions must be more practical. My first public advice to the schools would be to simplify the curriculum by separating all 'facts that are so' from 'facts that are not so.'"

Period of Most Intellectual Vigor.
Recent medical statistics as to the age when man has the most intellectual vigor give interesting results. It is from forty to fifty-six years that the most brilliant things have been accomplished by the majority of humans.

Chemists and physicians have made brilliant discoveries at forty. Poets have accomplished masterpieces at forty-four, and novelists two years later. Famous warriors average forty-seven; musicians are most brilliant at forty-eight and actors at the same age. Moralists are greatest at fifty-one, politicians at fifty-three, humorists at fifty-six, thus demonstrating that the last thing one learns is how to amuse one's fellows.—New York Times.

Their Hope.

"I shouldn't think there would be any difficulty in renting haunted houses to actors."

"Why not?"

"Because actors like to see the ghost walk."—Baltimore American.

Bluffing.

It is no use bluffing unless you have something to bluff with, and then you have no need to.

The Crowning Mistake.

A woman who writes a great deal for various publications recently enumerated the seven mistakes of matrimony.

This recalls the faithful Italian servant who called at a nearby house and said to the owner, "There are twenty-seven reasons why my master cannot visit you today. The first is, he is dead."

And the bachelor grouch at our elbow says there may be seven mistakes of matrimony, but the first is getting married.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Obstinate.

"Why don't you quit smoking, old chap? You know it hurts you."

"Certainly. But every time I make up my mind to do it somebody comes around and tells me I ought to."—Exchange.

Wonderful.

A celebrated vocalist was in a motor-car accident one day. A paper, recording the accident, said:

"We are happy to state that he was able to appear the following evening in three pieces."

Olympic Games.

It is generally believed that the first Olympic games were held in the year B. C. 1453.

MASTERS OF MEN.

Go forth into the busy world and love it, interest yourself in its life, mingle kindly with its joys and sorrows, try what you can do for men rather than what you can make them do for you, and you will know what it is to have men yours better than if you were their king or master.—Brook Herford.

TRIO OF FUR THIEVES ARE TAKEN TO THE WORKHOUSE

The three fur thieves, and the men suspected of being the trio who pulled off the daring hold-up at the Cisco postoffice in December, were Tuesday morning escorted to Xenia and started in the work of making brooms for a few months.

The men, Arthur O'Neill, William Dudley and Alf. Skidmore, were escorted by Officer Baughn and Mayor Coffey, and took their trip to the workhouse in a very cheerful manner.

The trio are the men who entered a plea of guilty upon a charge of stealing some $40 worth of pelts from the Dahl barn near the Cox livery barn, and later sold the furs to a Columbus dealer. O'Neill and Skidmore were given $50 and the costs and 60 days in the workhouse, while Dudley, for whom a strong plea was made by his mother, drew $25 and the costs and 30 days in the workhouse.

While held prisoner upon the charge of larceny, O'Neill and Dudley were identified as the two men who had entered the Barr store or Cisco postoffice, last December, and held up four men, robbed the postoffice and store cash boxes, and made their escape.

The local authorities held the men for a few days to await the appearance of a man named McAdams, who was among those robbed, and who was wanted to identify the men in order that charges might be brought against them for the crime.

McAdams could not be located, and the three men were taken to the workhouse. However, before they are released there may be further action upon the part of the local authorities which will result in their being tried for the charge of holding up the men at Cisco and also robbing the store and postoffice at that place. O'Neill's father is serving a life term in the Ohio pen for killing his wife, and Skidmore's father resides near Octa, where he is engaged in farming. His uncle was killed by a man named Smith, in pike county, a few years ago.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.
Mrs. Bertha Hill was given an enjoyable surprise at her home on West Market street on the occasion of her 41st birthday. Mrs. Hill was greatly surprised when she saw her friends and relatives arriving with well filled baskets.

The picnic feast was followed by music enjoyed by all.
Mrs. Effie Reynolds and Mrs. G. M. Oliver sang solos.

PEEVED CROWD MAKING WISHES

That the generosity of several persons who united in paying car fare for the Thomas brothers, of South Plymouth, was not appreciated Saturday evening, has been demonstrated by the fact that the pair of chickens, instead of paying their way home, took the money and played pool until late Saturday night, when they started out in the blizzard and walked to Plymouth.

And the ones who "put up" are peeved. They think they have reason to be peeved and for that reason they are now hoping that the pair of ungrateful lovers of yellow legged chickens will disregard the warning issued by Probate Judge Allen and remain in the county after Wednesday night, so they can be punished.

LOSES SIGHT OF EYE DURING NIGHT

A few mornings ago when Mrs. Chas. Brune, of Canal Winchester, who was the guest of County Commissioner Lewis Perrill and wife arose from her slumbers, she was horrified to discover that the sight of one eye was gone.

The shock was so great that she terminated her visit at once and returned to her home to undergo special treatment for the sad affliction.

The case is said to be a rare one, as the complete loss of sight in a single night is extremely uncommon.

BOB SLED RIDE TO CHILDREN'S HOME

The M. H. G. girls, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, enjoyed a bob sled ride to the Children's Home Monday evening.

In accord with a plan, announced some time ago, of holding weekly religious services at the Home, an interesting little service was led by Mrs. Hopkins upon their arrival.

Mr. Elmer Zimmerman brought in his bob sled to drive the girls out, and Edwards Hopkins also accompanied them.

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS MEET

At a meeting in Memorial hall Monday night, a camp of United Spanish-American War Veterans was mustered in by an officer of that organization from Columbus. Owing to the unfavorable weather, a small attendance was the result.

There being 13 men present to be mustered in, and some superstition on the part of some, Junior Vice-Commander Lon Stevenson, who lost a leg some time ago, agreed to make the number 12½, and business proceeded at once. Those mustered in were: Glenn Arnold, Howard Bales, Johnson Cabbage, Ed Douglass, Sam Lydy, J. H. Mitchner, Wade Keaton, Ward Pine, Lon Stevenson, Bert Shimp, Harve W. Smith, Henry Fadra and John Gillum.

The camp is to be known as the Col. B. H. Millikan camp, United Spanish War Veterans and the first meeting will be held Wednesday, February 25th. The charter is to be left open for 30 days in order that those wishing to come in as charter members may do so.

MEN'S SUPPER NOTES

The treat-in store for those who attend the men's annual supper at Grace church Thursday evening may be realized when it is known that capon is usually found only on the bill-o-fare at exclusive hotels.

No baskets will be filled Thursday night until after the supper rush is over. No exceptions made.

The new self-rising flour, from which Emma Marchant will make her famous hot biscuits, is donated by the Washington Milling company.

The supper would not be complete without Red Bird coffee, furnished by the Midland Grocery Company.

The best cooks in the city are responding to the call made for cakes, Boston brown bread, roasting capons and other like assistance.

MEETS WITH ACCIDENT AWAY FROM HOME

Miss Luella Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Riley, of Fayette Nursery, who was called to New Lexington last week by the death of a friend, had the misfortune to meet with a serious accident on Sunday. She slipped on the ice, sustaining a hard fall, in which her leg was broken between the ankle and the knee.

The plucky girl wrote cheerfully of the accident to her parents, assuring them that she expects to be home next week, and in the meantime her New Lexington friends are taking the best of care of her.

The Best Fortune Teller.
The quest of noblemen for wealth in America has been talked about for decades, but few, if any, can rival Baron Assezash in being witty in a practical way.
Miss de Millynn, his prospective wife, was entertaining the baron one evening and apropos of lovers' nothings she asked:
"Did you, baron, ever go to a fortune teller?"
"Yes, mees, many times. But the last time was best."
"Where did you go?"
"I went to the probate court to find out about your grandfather's will."—

TAX LIEN DAY SET ON OLD APRIL DATE

Legislature Acts on Recommendations of Governor Cox.

BOTH HOUSES GET INTO ACTION

Mills Municipal Ownership Bond Bill Passed as Amended in Conference. Governor's Bond Tax Proposition Within Provisions of Smith One Per Cent Act—Big Flood Measure Signed—Doings of the Solons.

Columbus, O., Feb. 17.—In accordance with Governor Cox's recommendations there were introduced and passed by both houses of the Ohio legislature the Cahill bill, changing the time of meeting of the budget commission from the first Monday in June to the first Monday in August, by which time the duplicate will be completed; the Edling bill, restoring the old date, the first Monday in April, as the day when taxes are to be listed; the Dollison bill, authorizing leases of oil, coal and gas rights on school lands by the state auditor on approval of the governor and attorney general, and the Reid bill, requiring a tax levy in every political subdivision to provide sinking fund and interest for all bonds issued.

The proposal to lease oil and mineral rights on school lands, which would have been leased at ridiculously low rentals, based usually on what the land was worth for crop raising 100 years ago, was first made by State Auditor Donahy, who saw in it a chance to create a large state revenue.

Representative Reid of Fayette, who fathered the governor's bond tax bill, went the governor one better and stipulated in it that the interest and redemption fund, to be levied incidental to the issuance of bonds, must be within the 10-mill limit of the Smith 1 per cent law. The governor's message did not allude to that feature.

Mills Bill Amended.

Acceptance of the conference report on the Mills municipal ownership bond bill passed that measure, but stripped it of every provision except permission to sell public utility bonds in denominations of $100 or more to citizens if there are no bidders when offered in larger denominations to bond buyers.

Municipalities desiring to build or buy utilities must proceed as set forth in the constitution, instead of having statutory guidance. Bonds must be based on the utility earnings and assets solely. The bondholders will have right to ask the court to turn the utilities over to them to operate for 20 years if there is default in interest.

The moment John Kramer of Richmond introduced the probe committee bill to prohibit members of the legislature holding extra state employments there was a scramble to punch holes in it. Several amendments offered were adopted. As passed by the house, members can not accept jobs under the executive and administrative branch of the state government.

ment: The penalty provided is forfeiture of membership in the legislature, an unenforceable provision, for, under the constitution, each house is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members and could remit this penalty.

The big Vonderheide flood protection bill was signed by the governor and the presiding officers. Governor Cox used two pens, which he gave Judge John A. McMahon, author of the bill, and John H. Patterson of Dayton.

The general appropriation bill, carrying $8,762,664.31, passed both houses. The conference committee's report was agreed to.

The house, by resolution, expressed sympathy for Dr. M. J. Jenkins of Madison, who is recovering in Grant hospital from a serious attack of pneumonia.

SUNDAY USES PRISON SLANG

Columbus, O., Feb. 17.—Rev. Billy Sunday gave a short talk in prison slang to the 1,600 prisoners in the Ohio penitentiary. Said Billy: "When you guys get out of the stir here, beat it quick, see! Don't be a repeater. Pass up the old gang. Let the smoke wagons alone. Don't give the city dicks a chance to put up a job on you; pass up the soup and yegg stuff; steer clear of the elbow men and gun men. Don't monkey with coke decks, hit the straight and narrow, hand the devil a fast one on the bean and be a regular guy."

BANDITS FOUND ON THE U. S. SIDE

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 17.—General Scott received a telegram from one of his officers in New Mexico stating that Maximo Castillo's bandit band had been located on the ranch of the Palomas Land and Cattle company, an American concern, south of Dog Springs, New Mexico. The officer said that rebel troops were in close pursuit and that the Castillo band was exhausted. Pancho Villa, who is still in Juarez, also received advice that Castillo's band is on the Palomas ranch.

TRACE SMALLPOX TO BIG REVIVAL

Wellston, O., Feb. 17.—To prevent a further spread of smallpox, the health authorities of Jackson have ordered the schools closed and no public gatherings of any kind will be permitted for two weeks at least. The infection is thought to have had its origin among the many visitors who attended a revival held there for five weeks recently.

MORE BALL DOPE

New York, Feb. 17.—If the Federal league is successful this year, there will be another club in Greater New York when the season of 1915 opens. This club will be operated in the Bronx, with financial backing supplied by the Ward company, which already has contracted to finance the Brooklyn Federals. The Bronx or New York club will play at grounds directly opposite the Ward bakery.

BANDIT JENNINGS HELPS MRS. BOND

Oklahoma City, Okla., February 17.—The feature of the day, other than the testimony of Senator Gore, was the appearance on the stand of Al J. Jennings, ex-outlaw and present candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket, as a witness for Mrs. Bond. Jennings contradicted the testimony of Mitch Bonner, Oklahoma City banker, and said that in Jim Jacobs' conversation with Bonner, Jacobs did not say he would "call off" the Gore charges for $25,000.

On cross-examination Jennings said that Jacobs, termed the "brains" of the alleged conspiracy against Gore, managed Jennings' campaign for county attorney two years ago.

Senator Gore answered every question put to him by Judge Stuart and Attorney E. J. Giddings for the plaintiff without the slightest hesitation, emphasizing his denials of the charges against him by gestures with clenched hands and changes in tone.

Speaking in a loud, clear voice, Senator Gore denied every essential part of the testimony of Mrs. Bond, Dr. Eap and the other members of the alleged conspiracy against him. His testimony was the climax to the sensational trial. The plaintiff will offer three rebuttal witnesses this afternoon, and the arguments of attorneys are not expected to occupy over a day.

CREAMER BOOMS EX-GOV. HARMON

Columbus, O., Feb. 17.—D. S. Creamer of Columbus, former state treasurer, issued a statement in which he said he would not consider being a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor if Judson Harmon would oppose Governor Cox at the primaries next August. Creamer says Harmon is the logical man to contest with Cox for the Democratic nomination.

STOP TRAIN AND LYNCH A NEGRO

Love Station, Miss., Feb. 17.—A mob of 50 masked men held up an Illinois Central train here, covered the train crew and all the passengers with revolvers and shotguns, took from the Desoto county sheriff two negroes, Buck McGuirk and Bill Phillips, accused of ambushing J. H. Ingram three weeks ago, hanged the first-named negro and turned Phillips loose. The two negroes were being brought from Batesville to Horndo for preliminary trial.

The Fox's Useful Brush.

Though it is only a useless and rather stupid trophy to the hunter, the fox's brush is of value in many ways as well as an ornament to the fox. His broad, bushy tail is the rudder which enables him to twist and turn at any moment when running at full speed. In approaching a wall or a hedge or a ditch which has to be jumped the fox gains additional impetus by rapidly twirling his tail round, just as an aeroplane propeller revolves. Again, in climbing trees the fox uses his tail as a balance or a sort of fifth leg, and finally in curling himself up to sleep he covers his head warm and cozily with his brush. —London Chronicle.

B. F. KEITH'S

Joseph Jefferson, son of the late, distinguished actor by the same name, will appear at B. F. Keith's Theater, Columbus, week of Feb. 23, in "Poor Old Jim." This is a tabloid play of more than usual merit, telling how a man was saved from drink through the clever ruse of his wife. Miss Blanche Bender will play the role of the wife. George Wright Jr., a clever young actor of international reputation, will play the part of the physician who aids the wife in effecting a cure.

Ismed, the wonderful Turkish pianist, who was to have appeared at Keith's during the week of Feb. 16, postponed his engagement until a week later, hence will appear on this bill. Ismed is the most celebrated pianist of the eastern world, and it is fortunate that he has been secured for an engagement in Columbus, during his brief engagement in America. Ismed, picturesque, and quaint, makes a striking stage picture. His technique is faultless and his selections, well suited to vaudeville audiences.

Kirk and Fogerty, the ever popular entertainers, will appear in their new act called "Fifteen Minutes of Patter and Song." Miss Kirk is one of the prettiest girls on the stage, and wears stunning costumes. Mr. Fogerty is a typical comedian, and the two are admirable foils for each other.

A real treat will be offered by Bankoff, erstwhile dancing partner of Pavlova. Bankoff will be assisted by a beautiful young woman who dances with grace and ease and who is able to present the latest dances in the most pleasing manner. The latest in South American, and Spanish dances, as well as the newest of the American tango steps will be carefully demonstrated.

SUNDAY PICTURES.

Out of town Sunday visitors in Columbus should not fail to visit B. F. Keith's Theater on East Gay St., where the newest and best motion pictures are shown from 1:30 in the afternoon until 10:30 at night.

WOMAN COLLAPSES

Cleveland, O., Feb. 17.—Mrs. Marie Heuttl, held in the county jail on a charge of murdering her husband, Carl Heuttl, collapsed in her cell. Heuttl was shot a few hours after he obtained a divorce several weeks ago. He died Saturday night. Her condition is serious.

DEAD IDENTIFIED

Cleveland, O., Feb. 17.—Another identification of the mysterious "Mary Brown" was made at the county morgue when Dr. R. J. Armstrong, a dentist, looked at the body and from dental work became convinced that the girl was Hazel Schmitt, who worked for some time in a restaurant, and his wife confirmed the identification. The girl committed suicide in the postoffice here a week ago.

FARMERS PAYING EXCESSIVE RATES ON MORTGAGES

Washington, Feb. 17.—Senator Fletcher, speaking at a joint hearing of house and senate banking and currency committees on rural credits, said that $6,000,000,000 is owned by the farmers of the United States, of which $2,000,000,000 was secured by mortgages on their farms. On this tremendous amount, he declared, the rate of interest was from 6 to 24 per cent, in addition to unjust charges made by the bankers and agents in arranging the loans. He read letters to prove that in many states the total of the mortgages on farms equals the total assets.

PERSISTENCE.

So few people succeed greatly because so few people can conceive a great end and work toward that end without deviating and without tiring. But we all know that the man who works for money day and night gets rich and the man who works day and night for no matter what kind of material power gets the power. It is the same with the deeper, more spiritual issues, which make for happiness and every intangible success. It is only the dreams of those who dream faintly that do not come true.—Arthur Symons.

Father of Fox Hunting.

John Warde of Westerham is generally believed to have been the father of fox hunting. He was master of the hounds for more than half a century, and then he sold his pack for the record price of 2,000 guinea. "This mighty hunter," writes Gibbon Thompson, "died in 1838 at the ripe old age of eighty-six at his house on Charles street, Berkeley square. One of the portraits of him at Squerries court, that by James Green, is in the dining room. His favorite hounds were two, Glory and Beauty; the picture shows him with but one, and he is supposed to be soliloquizing, 'My Beauty hath departed, but my Glory remains.'"—London Chronicle.

DEFENSE COST US BILLION IN DECADE

Maintenance of the Military Establishment Comes High. CHAIRMAN HAY MAKES REPORT

Estimates of the Secretary of War Cut to the Bone, According to the Head of the House Committee On Military Affairs—Recommendation For an Increase of the Army Does Not Find Favor.

Washington, Feb. 17.—More than a billion dollars has been expended for the maintenance of the military establishment of the United States in the past 10 years, according to a report made on the military appropriation bill by Representative Hay of Virginia, chairman of the house committee on military affairs.

This year's bill is notable for the fact that it contains no authorization for extraordinary expenditures, despite the rumors of war that have been in the air for the past few months. The estimates of the secretary of war were cut to the bone and the appropriation authorized for war purposes in the fiscal year that will begin July 1 next is less by $25,000 than the amount allowed for the purpose in the current fiscal year.

At the beginning of the session Secretary Garrison estimated that $104,947,758 would be needed by the war department in the new fiscal year. Last year's appropriation amounted to $94,214,145. The appropriation proposed foots up to $94,241,173, which is $10,733,000 less than the amount called for by the secretary of war.

Among recommendations by Secretary Garrison was an appropriation to maintain an army of 85,000 men, exclusive of the Philippine scouts, the quartermaster corps and the hospital corps. This would have provided an increase of about 17,000 men in the army. This appropriation was refused by the house committee. "The committee is not able to see the necessity for this material increase of the army," said Chairman Hay in his report.

DINNER BY PARCEL POST.

Woman Offers Complete Chicken Feast For Four.

Boston.—A woman of Durham, Me., is advertising a cooked dinner of chicken, plum pudding, gravy, hard sauce, cranberry sauce, mince pie, pumpkin pie and vegetables delivered any time by parcel post.

She put a little advertisement in a local newspaper, and orders began to pour in upon her at once. She sends enough of all these good things for four people in one package. All that is necessary to prepare the dinner for the table is to warm it.

Coward.

A witty judge declared recently that "a patriot was a man who refused to button his wife's blouse. A martyr," he went on, "is one who attempts and fails, while a hero tries and succeeds." "Then what is a coward?" asked a curious bystander. "Oh, a coward," replied the judge, "is a man who remains single so that he won't have to try."—Cleveland Leader.

Republican or Progressive What's the Difference?

What is the difference between these two parties? In spite of the fact that the forming of a new party is of tremendous importance to everyone in the state and country, it is probable that the people who can tell you definitely how the platforms of those two parties in this state differed when they were drawn up in 1912, or how that new party differed from any one of the others, are very, very few in number. And yet you cannot be an intelligent citizen unless you are one of those few.

The platform of this newer party, and of the Democratic, and Republican, and Socialist, and Socialist-Labor, and Prohibition parties are all given in our new OHIO ALMANAC, the only Handbook of its kind issued. These platforms fill less than six pages of its hundreds, and the others are filled with equally important information. Altogether there are over 100,000 facts in the book, everyone of them as practical as it is interesting. And every one is something that you will want to know some day. The complete index makes every one of them as easily found as though it stood alone in the book.

You get them all for 25; by mail, postpaid, 30c.

Explosive Diamonds.

A curious fact about diamonds is that it is not uncommon for the crystals to explode as soon as they are brought up from the mine. Sometimes they have burst in the pockets or the warm hands of miners, due to the effect of increased temperature. Large stones are more likely to do this than small ones. Valuable stones have been destroyed in this way. To safeguard them some dealers place large diamonds in raw potatoes for safe transport from South Africa.

ARE USING MORE CORN FERTILIZER

A few years ago the use of fertilizer in Fayette county for the purpose of producing greater yields of corn, was very limited, but many farmers having tried fertilizer for corn and found results satisfactory, are increasing their fertilized acreage year by year.

One of the county's most prominent farmers has just purchased 20 tons of fertilizer to apply to his corn ground. This purchase is for one of a number of his farms.

The use of fertilizer for wheat in this county is also comparatively recent, and the use became general just a few years ago. At the present, however, very few farmers think of sowing wheat without an application of commercial fertilizer.

Sterling woman who murdered her infant babe in this city last month and consigned its tiny body to a vault near the stove factory, and is now awaiting action of the grand jury upon a charge of murder in the first degree, is taking her imprisonment very quietly.

She has a good appetite and her appearance is much better than before she entered the county jail. She makes little complaint against her imprisonment, and has apparently resigned herself to her fate, whatever it may be, although at no time has she given the impression that she realizes the enormity of her crime.

RIGID INSPECTION GIVEN COMPANY M

Company M. O. N. G., was given a rigid inspection by Major Safrans and Capt. Shetler, Monday night, but the officers and men went through the various drills and tests with flying colors, and the company will have a high rating, it is said.

Quite a number of spectators watched the inspection, the company appearing on the floor in olive drab uniform, equipped for field service, and with their guns and other equipment showing the best of care. Capt. Hardway and Lieutenant Paul put their men through all of the difficult movements with skill. Nearly every member of the company was in line.

The inspecting officers went to Greenfield Tuesday to inspect the company in that town.

HUGE DRIFTS BLOCK HIGHWAYS

Many of the country roads have been blocked by mammoth snow drifts as a result of the storm Sunday night, and in a number of instances traffic has been very difficult. Men with shovels were at work in various parts of the county, Monday, clearing the roads.

So deep was the snow near Jeffersonville that the Baker Motor bus was forced to forego its regular trips Monday until the roads could be opened. Some of the rural mail carriers in the county have found it a hard task to reach all of their patrons.

Roads extending north and south were in the worst condition, while highways extending east and west were not obstructed with drifts to any marked degree.

PROHIBITION UP AS A BIG ISSUE

Plans of Temperance Advocates Stir Congress Leaders.

GREAT WAVE IS NATIONAL

Referendum to States For Constitutional Amendment is Expected—Nine States Already Dry and Four More May Get Into Column This Year. Eighteen Are Half Dry.

Washington.—The spread of prohibition sentiment in the United States in the past year has made a deep impression on leaders in congress. The events of that period when viewed in the light of the ambitious program that the temperance advocates have set for themselves in the immediate future are causing much serious thinking and some anxiety on the part of members of congress who look beyond their noses.

In fact, many of the leaders in the national legislature believe that they already see the prohibition question looming as a national issue. They fear the time is near when a constitutional amendment providing for national prohibition will be submitted by congress to a referendum of the states.

Such an amendment is now pending in both the house and the senate, and the promotion of it through congress is the accomplishment toward which all the anti-liquor forces are looking most hopefully. By many of the clearest of the crusade leaders doubt is expressed whether the time is yet ripe for pushing the constitutional amendment resolution, or whether it would be better to continue to strengthen the foundations of the measure by bringing additional states more definitely into the prohibition column.

But that the test eventually will come in congress and that the national legislators will be subjected to pressure such as they have seldom if ever experienced is the growing conviction in Washington.

SENATOR W. S. KENYON, A LEADING ADVOCATE OF PROHIBITION.

The fear is expressed by leaders of both parties that when the test does finally come congress will do as it did in two important instances last year when called on to pass upon the liquor question—disregard its own convictions and vote to appease public clamor.

It has long been a matter of comment in Washington that the only way in which temperance legislation can be prevented in congress is by holding the bills in committee and by keeping them from the floor of the house or senate. When the average member of congress is face to face with the liquor question and a delegation of temperance advocates he may drink like a fish himself, but he will promptly record his vote in favor of the dries.

That at least was the history of the two most important developments of the past year in congress. The passage of the Jones Works excise law for the District of Columbia and the enactment of the Webb-Kenyon law to prohibit the shipment of liquor into prohibition territory for sale were regarded by the temperance crusaders as red letter events on their last year's calendar.

They were cited not only over what the laws might accomplish, but over the way in which their enactment demonstrated the hold of the anti upon the national legislature.

The ease with which the passage of these laws was obtained has also left its impression on congress. Few members dared to oppose the measures in the open, and both went through by overwhelming votes, the Webb-Kenyon bill over the veto of President Taft. The opposition was confined chiefly to the committee rooms, but when the bills were pushed into the open members lined up quickly in favor of them. They believed this was the part of political wisdom.

As the result of the passage of the Jones Works bill the city of Washington now finds itself on Sundays as dry as a burnt bone. A club member cannot even get a drink in his own clubhouse on Sunday.

Our 1914 Ohio Almanac

Real facts are way beyond fiction in fascination when they are selected by people who know the significance of what they are doing. It is such people as that who compiled this complete encyclopedia of Ohio for you.

INDUSTRY

There are about six hundred thousand people in Ohio's factories alone, there are many more thousands on farms. And they are all engaged in producing food and clothing and other necessities for you.

POLITICS

There were about one and one-quarter million votes cast for president in Ohio at the last election. How they were divided and how other officials and various amendments to the constitution were voted on in this state and in your county is of more than passing interest.

LEGISLATION

Tax laws, pure food laws, the sort of legislation each of the six parties in the state stand for, is not only of interest to read and understand but it affects you personally and vitally.

UNIVERSITIES

The universities and the schools of Ohio are doing wonderful work. Do you know very much about them, or how many boys and girls and young men and young women of the state they are reaching?

These are just a few of the lines of general interest treated in our new 1914 Ohio Almanac, and all of them treated with clarity and conciseness, which means that a busy man can take time to learn about them. We offer our readers the Handbook for only 25 cents; by mail, 30 cents.

SAILORS FROZEN LASHED TO MASTS

By Associated Press.
Wellfleet, Mass., February 17.—Captain Gaiva and four seamen of the Italian bark Caspagnia, perished when the vessel was thrown on the outer bar of Cape Cod near the Marconi wireless station this morning.

Wellfleet, Mass., Feb. 17.—Four men perished when the Italian bark Caspagnia struck on the outer bar of Cape Cod, one and one-half miles south of Coshoons Hollow Life Saving Station today. Seven seamen, all nearly unconscious from exposure were brought ashore by the life savers.

The frozen corpses of Captain Gaiva and three sailors were left in the rigging where they had lashed themselves to avoid being carried overboard by the sea. The Caspagnia struck the bar in a blinding snow storm early this morning while a 60-mile gale was blowing. She was cited by the life saving station at dawn, 600 yards off with the turf pouring over her decks and threatening to pound her to pieces. The life saving crew set up guns and shot three lines across her decks but the sailors were so cold and numb that they could not handle the breeches buoy tackle. The gale moderated to 30 miles this morning but the surf was so high that the life savers had to wait before they could reach the vessel with their boats. All the rescued were so overcome by exposure that they could not give a coherent account of the disaster.

VESSEL HANGING ON BRINK

By Associated Press.
Louisville, Ky., Feb. 17.—One hundred and ten passengers including men and women were thrown into a panic when the Queen City, the largest packet on the Ohio River, rammed a pier at the head of Ohio Falls, opposite this city, after the current had almost carried her over the falls.

Life saving crew had great difficulty in preventing many half dressed people from throwing themselves into the icy waters. Efforts will be made today to pull the Queen City off the pier where the current carried her.

Efforts were still being made this afternoon to release the Queen City. Her cargo is being removed because there is eight feet of water in her hold.

OBSEQUIES OVER BACON VERY SIMPLE

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—The funeral services of Senator Bacon of Georgia were held today in the Senate chamber. There were no speeches of eulogy, no music, and no flowers, except one design—a tribute of the Senate which was placed on the coffin.

The ceremonies were impressive in their simplicity and the place, with the dignity of those assembled to honor the dead, lent added impressiveness. Seats on the floor were reserved for President Wilson, members of his cabinet, the Chief Justice and associate Justices, members of the Diplomatic Corps and others.

The members of the immediate family and the officiating clergyman remained in the vice-president's room until time for the services, when they were conducted to their seats.

The Episcopal burial service was in charge of Bishop Albert Harding, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal church, followed by the benediction by the Chaplain.

At the conclusion of the services members of the Capitol Police bore the body to the marble room where it remained until escorted to the railway station for the journey to Atlanta. The body will lie in state at the Georgia state capitol until taken to Macon for interment.

COMPLAINT OVER BOOST MADE IN EXPRESS RATES

Charge Made That Much Heralded
Cut in Express Rates Comes Only
In Small Packages and That Marked
Increase Has Been Made in Rate
On Packages Weighing Over 50 Pounds.

A great cry has been raised over the advance made in express rates on packages weighing over fifty pounds, and a protest has arisen from all over the land, according to reports in the Cincinnati Packer, extracts from which are given below. The express companies did make a sweeping reduction on small packages, in order to compete with the Parcel Post prices, but the "decrease" on packages weighing over fifty pounds is apparently what has caused the complaint.

The following excerpts will give some idea of the extent of the protest against increased rates.

Kansas City jobbers in the fruit and produce trade in Kansas City have suddenly awakened to the fact that the so-called horizontal reduction in express rates, which went into effect February 1, has proved to be little less than a boomerang. Indeed, there are those who declare that the new rates are, in fact, the biggest piece of buncho-steering the American people ever have been put up against.

The new rates have been in effect less than two weeks yet there are many instances already where the cost of transportation by express has been increased all the way from 12 1/2 to 83 1-3 per cent. In some cases the cost has been increased to such an extent that the business will be wholly destroyed.

Reports to The Packer indicate that the actual condition of affairs has been as much of a surprise to the business men of one section of the country as to another. In fact every body had been lulled into the belief that a reduction in express rates all along the line, was at hand, when the contrary is the result.

True, there have been a great many cases in which the rates have been reduced, but the commodities involved generally have been those which have come into open competition with rates established by the parcel post.

CINCINNATI PROTESTS.

Cincinnati members of the fruit and produce trade are "up in the air" over the increase in express rates on packages weighing over 50 pounds, which went into effect February 1. The new rates show an advance of all the way from 25 to 100 per cent in many instances and dealers declare that unless the rates are put back to the old schedule their business will be greatly hampered.

SHIPPERS UP IN ARMS.

St. Louis, Mo.—The express companies are exploiting themselves loudly to the general public on the recent reduction in express rates which went into effect February 1, but the real facts in the case are that the rates have been decreased on small packages that come in competition with the parcel post, but have not been decreased on butter, eggs, poultry and other produce. On the contrary they have been increased on interstate shipments. Shipments of these commodities within the state of Missouri remain practically unchanged.

MEMPHIS MAKES COMPLAINT.

Memphis, Tenn.—Local handlers of produce and vegetables are up in arms against the new express rates and they assert that instead of them being cheaper they are from 10 to 65 per cent higher as a rule. The principal changes were made on rates for eggs and poultry from sections on which the local trade rely for the bulk of their stuff. For instance, it now costs about 72 cents a case to bring eggs from Missouri points to Memphis, whereas the old rate was 54 cents. The distance is something over 200 miles. From western Arkansas points rates have been raised.

PROTESTS FROM A SHIPPER.

The much advertised cut rates of the express companies are now in force and we see how the companies expect to make enough so their business and property will not be confiscated.

From this you will see that our rates have been advanced 70 per cent in last 18 months.

SAME THING IN KENIA.

The express companies are making a great noise over the reduction they have made in their rates. They have to Main, California, and Florida, and other far distant points, says the Xenia Gazette. But their patrons send and receive hundreds of packages from Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, and other nearby places while comparatively few to the more distant cities. The Gazette uses the express companies every day in the year. Yesterday's expenses will illustrate. We received a shipment of 107 pounds from Cincinnati, and paid 81 cents charges. This same package would have cost 54 cents before February first. The rate from Cincinnati was then 50c per 100. Now it is 54 cents per 100. This is our experience every day.

On the other hand, had we ordered this package from San Francisco we would have saved $3.50 over former rates. On long hauls and on packages that may be sent by Parcel Post a reduction has been made, but on short hauls and packages too heavy for mailing we all catch it. The great "reduction" in rates will undoubtedly produce hundreds of thousands of dollars additional profit for the express companies.

Hartman Theater

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 23RD.

John Drew returns to the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Wednesday, and Thursday, Feb. 25th and 26th, with two new plays of the kind that once made theatergoing a pleasure for the cultivated. Mr. Drew has long enjoyed the reputation of being the best actor of light comedy on the American stage, and in his latest successes in which he will appear here, he discloses new phases of his brilliant art. Charles Frohman, under whose direction he appears, had a happy inspiration in choosing for him two contrasting plays—"The Tyranny of Tears," by C. Haddon Chambers, and "The Will," by J. M. Barrie. In the first mentioned play Mr. Drew gives one of those finished studies of a man of the world for which he is so adept. In the latter play, which is written in three scenes, Mr. Drew successively shows three distinct portraits of the same man, each at a different epoch of his life.

Never before has Mr. Drew so absolutely and skillfully effected his own personality in characterizing the dominant figure in "The Will." The success of this double bill in New York was most emphatic and it is cause for congratulation that local theatergoers will be privileged with an opportunity to witness the same program interpreted by Mr. Drew and his artistic associates.

Neil O'Brien and his great American Minstrels, all new and better than ever, will be the attraction at the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Friday and Saturday, February 27-28, with matinee Saturday.

Mr. O'Brien is surrounded with an amazing array of talent including many of the highest salaried comedians, singers and special feature acts on the minstrel stage. Neil O'Brien needs no indorsement. For years he has entertained thousands with his original wit and won their admiration for the good clean fun with which his work always permeates. The company is the largest minstrels organization traveling and includes in addition to the star, such notable comedians as Eddie Ross, Eddie Mazier, Oets Deisel, Major Nowak, Georgie Faust and a score of others. The company also contains several soloists who have won names for themselves, notably Ward Barton, the famous Yodler, Al Fontaine, Jas. Barardi, Leslie Berry, Georgie Hagen and Walter Lindsey.

PLUNGES 500 FEET TO DOOM

Naval Aviator Murray Drops Into Pensacola Bay.

Pensacola, Fla., Feb. 17.—Lieutenant J. M. Murray of the naval aviation corp dashed to his death while flying over Pensacola bay. His machine dipped at an altitude of 500 feet and, gaining speed with each moment, struck the water in the middle of the bay with terrific force, instantly killing the aviator and wrecking the aeroplane.

Lieutenant Murray was one of several of the navy aviators out for flights. He remained out longer than any of the others and was headed back towards the city, after flying over the gulf, when the fatal accident occurred.

Lieutenant Murray was among the experienced aviators who came here four weeks ago, and he had made several flights with the various naval machines and was considered one of the expert aviators of the corps.

SNOWED UNDER

New York, Feb. 17.—The tie-up of the streets of the city is so complete that if a bad fire occurred it might easily turn into a conflagration of any size. Fire Commissioner Adamson asked all citizens to guard carefully against fires. The snow chokes the streets so completely that fire apparatus would take a great deal longer to get to a flame and most of the hydrants in the city are packed under snow.

Commissioner Featherstone of the street cleaning department admitted the danger and said that he was doing all he could to get conditions back to normal for the firemen. The firemen themselves were sent out clearing the snow away from the hydrants.

A Candid Opinion.

Mr. Harris had been considering for some time the advisability of approaching his son's schoolteacher in regard to that young man's studies. He was sure William was not getting along as fast as he should, and this fact worried the father greatly.

He was greeted kindly by the teacher, and after a few preliminary questions the father inquired:

"What branch do you consider the most profitable for my son William, Mr. Flint?"

"I can hardly say, but I think a good, stout blue beech or a long, sinuous birch would do him as much good as any."—Lippincott's.

The Lincoln Highway

Each year as the birthday of the great Lincoln is celebrated there arises unanimously from the people of the United States the wish to show him honor in the form of permanent tribute.

No other hero of our country has ever aroused this feeling of personal love desiring to perpetuate itself as has the immortal Liberator.

Realizing this deeply implanted feeling for Abraham Lincoln, and the fact that there could be no memorial too great for the American people to erect in his honor, the project of a Lincoln Highway, connecting New York with San Francisco, by means of a splendid broad highway, bearing the name of the great American, is suggested as the best possible memorial.

It would indeed be a memorial of the people and for the people. A tremendous majority of the American people would make use of it, at least at some period of their lives, and derive direct benefit, while every American citizen would feel personal pride in a "Lincoln Highway" in which he had his part.

Dr. Hubert M. Skinner, historian and educator, is an ardent advocate of the building of a Lincoln Highway such as would stand the wear of centuries, so that "after 2000 years have passed, when buildings now existing shall have disappeared, the Abraham Lincoln Highway will remain, beautified by myriads of memorial statues, arches and like adornments, the accumulation of the ages along its course."

Whether this idea is practical enough to be carried to successful completion remains to be seen, but undoubtedly the building of a splendid highway across our continent, such as has been under consideration for some time, would be a worthy memorial, in which Americans would take supreme delight.

Dr. Skinner asserts that the greatest memorials of the ancient world were edifices, monumental structures and highways.

"Of the edifices the very few that remain are generally in ruins. The arches, monoliths and statues that survive, defaced by the hand of time, awaken a mournful interest in the beholder. The great highways of the ancient world, as serviceable today as in the thousands of years that have passed over them remain, with their unwritten history of blessing to every age and every year and every day since their inception. Measured by their influence upon civilization and upon human happiness, they are the greatest physical works of man.

Intimately connected with every emotion of the human heart are the great highways; interwoven are they with history, biography, drama, poem and romance.

As travelers abroad all know the Appian Way still leads out of Rome, the smooth, level, paved road upon which triumphal processions entered Rome in its golden days, and over which the Apostle Paul passed on his noble missions. It remains the great highway that it was during the early centuries.

In Britain, the home of many American ancestors, the constructive Romans built other highways, defying time in their preserved condition.

Extending through the then almost trackless Britain, as historians tell us, was built a broad magnificent roadway, piercing the densest forests, spanning the rivers, rising in a causeway above the marshes, cutting through the hills; this noble road so preserved its level that it became known as the "Trajan's Way," and when the Angles and the Saxons came to England they gave it the name of "Watling". To this day Watling street in England is a great artery of locomotion. But small fragments remain of Hadrian's Roman wall in Britain, while Watling street will remain as long as England shall be inhabited.

These great highways of the ancient world bear witness down the ages to the colossal conceptions, the marvelous enterprise of the Romans, both at home and abroad. It was the day of slaves and war, hostages and immense numbers of them were put to work on the highways upon which their labor was of permanent benefit.

Far off from those days, with conditions totally different, yet these great roads offer suggestions for the building of a Lincoln Highway which would be even a greater marvel than the works of the constructive Romans in the difficulties to be overcome before its smooth highway could cross mountain and desert to link together the Goddess of Liberty of the East with the Golden Gate of the West.

Poetry For Today

THE GOLDEN SIDE.

There is many a rest in the road of life
If we only would stop to make it;
And many a tone from the better land
If the querulous heart would take it.
To the sunny soul, that is full of hope
And whose beautiful trust ne'er falters,
The grass is green and the flowers are bright,
Though the wintry storm prevail-eth.

Better to hope, though the clouds hang low,
And to keep the eyes still lifted,
For the sweet blue sky will soon peep through
When the ominous clouds are rifted!
There was never a night without a day,
Or an evening without a morning;
And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes,
Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life
Which we pass in our idle pleasure,
That is richer far than the jeweled crown,
Or the miser's hoarded treasure;
It may be the love of a little child,
Or a mother's prayers to Heaven,
Or only a beggar's grateful thanks
For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life
A bright and golden filling,
And to do God's will with a ready heart,
And hands that are swift and willing
Than to snap the delicate, minute threads
Of our curious lives asunder,
And then blame Heaven for the tangled ends,
And sit and grieve and wonder.

First Christmas Gift Book.

In the General Advertiser of Jan. 9, 1750, appeared the earliest known announcement of a Christmas gift book, and in this case it was undeniably a gift book:

Nurse True-love's Christmas Box; or The Golden Plaything for Little Children, by which they may learn the letters as soon as they can speak; and know how to behave so as to make everybody love them; adorned with thirty cuts."—London Mail.

LINER DRIVEN ON THE ROCKS

LINER HITS ROCKS, BUT IT PULLS OFF

Lives of Five Hundred Passengers Were Imperiled.

New York, Feb. 17.—The steamship Roma of the Fabre line (French) escaped from the rocky reefs of the island of No Man's Land after her company of 500 were in grave danger of death for more than four hours. Losing her course in a northwest gale and blinding snowstorm, the liner hung on the rocks for hours while three revenue cutters raced towards her. She proceeded to Providence.

The revenue cutter Achusnet, which started from New Bedford, was the nearest of the relief ships to the Roma. She was sent through Vineyard sound in the midst of a blinding snowstorm.

The Roma was bound for New York from Lisbon and the Azores, touching at Providence. Unfortunately she got too much to the eastward in steaming in for Narragansett bay and missed her way because of the blinding gale and high seas which would tend to drive her off her course. Many of the passengers on the ship are Portuguese from Lisbon and Bravas from the Azores.

LINER DISABLED

New York, Feb. 17.—A wireless message from the disabled French transatlantic liner Niagara says that she is 130 miles southwest of Brownhead, bound east, under her own steam. She is escorted by two vessels whose names are not given.

VESSELS IN DISTRESS

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 17.—With a freezing northwest gale sweeping the coast, shipping is experiencing its worst storm of the winter. Reports of unknown vessels in distress were received here and the revenue cutter Onondaga has gone out to help them. The cutter brought in the schooner Mary E. Palmer with her foremast torn away and her sails torn to threads. The Onondaga hurried back to sea to assist two steamers reported in trouble below the capes.

Blooms but to Die.

The talipot palm (Corypha umbraculifera) of Ceylon, whose leaves are put to such numerous uses by the Cingalese, bears fruit but once during its life. This elegant tree measures about ten feet around the trunk and attains a height of about 180 feet. The flowers, the appearance of which presages death to the tree, are inclosed in a tall spathe, which bursts with a loud report, disclosing a huge plume of beautiful blossom. The inflorescence is succeeded by equally conspicuous bunches of fruit. When these have ripened the tree withers rapidly and in the course of a fortnight may be seen prostrate and decaying on the spot it adorned.

NEWS OUR FATHERS READ

By John E. M. Kerr.

June 27, 1872.

Mrs. Machenhoffer, near the school house, keeps on hand fresh yeast of elegant quality which will be supplied to our citizens wishing it, at low prices.

We noticed a nice shower of rain on Friday which refreshed the thirsty earth, revived vegetation and cooled the heated atmosphere. Thank Allah for the blessed rain, but Heavens! if the weather continues to increase with heat until August, everything will be melted.

NEWSY NOTES

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

The residents of Pike county are greatly worked up over an epidemic of small pox that is now raging in their county. Hundreds have been exposed and already in the little village at Idaho 15 cases are being treated.

It's a long hard winter for the habitual users of cocaine and morphine as the state authorities are beginning a state wide campaign enforcing the statutes prohibiting physicians from issuing prescriptions for these drugs. Fines and jail sentences have been imposed on the doctors in several instances in Cincinnati, Cleveland and Columbus. Persons addicted, fiends for the drugs, unable to break the habit will be sent to state institutions and given special treatment.

Owners of fruit trees, either an orchard or a single tree, must spray before May 15, or the owner's neglect lays them liable to a stiff fine. The law, passed in 1910, required spraying only when 10 or more trees were owned by one person. The new law is much more inclusive and reads as follows:

"Whoever being owner or manager of an orchard, or of one or more fruit trees, shall spray or cause to be sprayed said trees one or more times during the May 15, with some suitable preparation for the destruction of the San Jose, oyster or scurvy scale."

For violation or neglect, a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100 is provided and the prosecuting attorney is charged with the duty of seeing the law's enforcement.

In an effort to stem the tide of the bibulous and thirsty journeying from Cincinnati, the dry and tight, to towns across the river, a policeman is stationed on the approaches of the bridges with instructions to right about face all persons crossing the bridge in a state of intoxication.

DRAWS PROTEST FROM ITALIANS

Washington, Feb. 17.—Secretary of State Bryan conferred with Senator Smith of South Carolina, chairman of the immigration committee, regarding the pending immigration bill before that body. Certain administrative features of the bill, which have already brought a protest from Italy, were discussed, and the senator's visit was followed by one from the Italian ambassador. The Italian objection is directed at the provision in the bill by which American medical inspectors are to be placed on foreign liners bringing immigrants to the United States. Italy maintains an inspection service of her own on all Italian vessels carrying immigrants, and resents the endeavor of the United States to override her supervision of emigration traffic.

DARING ROBBERY

Cleveland, O., Feb. 17.—Four thieves robbed the basement of the Model Cloak company of $1,500 worth of garments, tossed them to two other men waiting outside and all escaped in an automobile. The thieves gained access through an adjoining basement.

KNEW THE INDIANS

Defiance, O., Feb. 17.—Mrs. Elizabeth Carter, oldest resident of Defiance and the oldest Presbyterian in Ohio, is dead at the age of 96. She came to Defiance when the Indians were still here and 11 years before gold was discovered in California.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

PROGRESSIVE STAND TAKEN BY M. E. CHURCH

Official Board Votes to Expend $5000 in Overhauling and Re-Decorating the Church Before the Coming of the Annual Conference.

ALSO SELECTS LADY PASTORAL ASSISTANT

Latter Step Regarded as Greatest Action Taken in Years Toward Increasing the Efficiency of the Church—Miss Mazie Priddy, of Greenfield, Named.

The official board of Grace M. E. church at a meeting held Monday night unanimously decided upon two very important steps, both being matters which mean much to the entire congregation. The first has to do with the redecoration of the interior of the splendid church edifice, and the action in ordering the work to be done is in accord with the report of a committee appointed by Rev. F. E. Ross two months ago, to make a thorough survey of the conditions.

The committee recommended a complete overhauling of the church interior, and cited six main points, covering redecoration of the ceilings and walls of the auditorium and Sunday school room, steel ceiling and prism glass windows for the basement, heavy Brussels carpet for the auditorium and Sunday school room, re-varnishing and cleaning of all pews and woodwork, a re-arrangement of the entire lighting system and the probable enlargement of the choir loft to greatly increase its capacity. A modern vacuum cleaner plant will also be installed.

The committee estimates that the cost of these improvements will be at least $5000.

Bids for the work will be received and competition will be open. Architects are already making sketches and plans and no time will be lost, as the board is very anxious that everything be complete and in readiness before the meeting of the annual Ohio Conference, which will be held in Grace church next fall.

The meeting of the official board members was characterized by great enthusiasm and unanimity, and the great growth and prosperous condition of the church was freely commented upon.

The second great step was the adoption of a motion empowering the board to employ a general pastoral and clerical assistant for Rev. Ross for a period of four months at a salary of $60 per month.

This is regarded as one of the greatest steps in the direction of efficiency yet taken by Grace church, and is recognized as the opening wedge to the installation of more efficient, permanent plans for advancing the interests of the church. The assistant will assist the pastor, look after the books and records, check up the Sunday school work, visit the sick and make calls on the members generally.

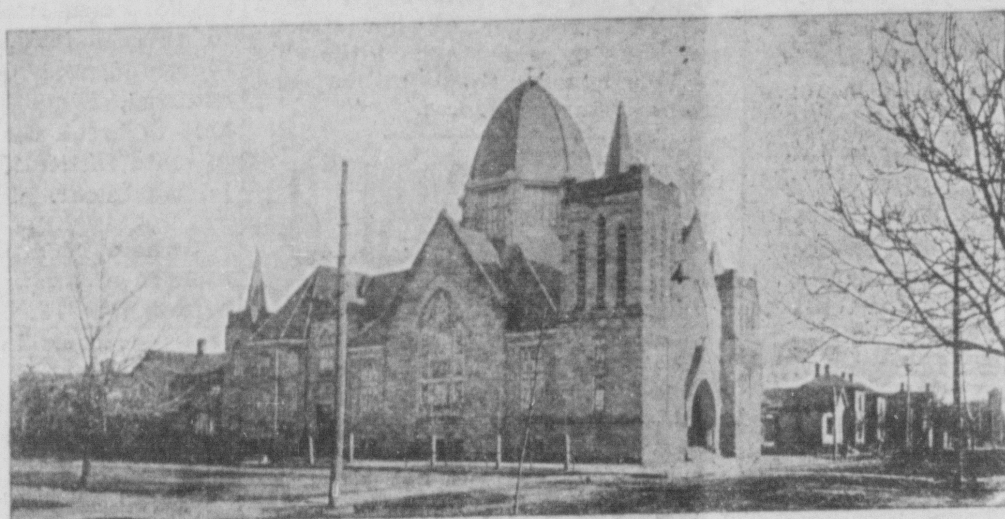

For this position Miss Mazie Priddy, of Greenfield, a sister of Mrs. Ralph Penn, of this city, will be chosen. She is a woman well fitted for the work, having received several years' training in the Methodist Training School and Home for Deaconesses at Chicago. She will begin her work about the middle of the coming June, and the results will be carefully watched by both the church leaders and congregation.

The determination of the official board to proceed along the lines mentioned are in line with the progressive policies of the church and heartily endorsed by Rev. Ross under whose most successful pastorate of about 16 months nearly 350 additions to the church have been recorded. Grace church is rapidly becoming one of the leading churches in the Ohio Conference.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

The official board last night ordered changes and improvements which will cost $5000 and greatly beautify the interior.

CHANGE IN TAXATION LAW EFFECTIVE APRIL NEXT YEAR

The change made by the Ohio legislature in the taxation laws, whereby tax lien day is changed from the first Monday in February to the first Monday in April, is not effective until next year, and the work of the assessors this year will continue as it has started.

Confirmation of the above statement was made by District Assessor Dunn, when asked concerning the matter Tuesday morning.

The change in the law was made at the recommendation of Gov. Cox, who, in his speech at Good Hope last week, first announced his intention of asking the Legislature to change the date to April so that it will not work a hardship on the farmers, who, on the first Monday in February, usually have large herds of cattle or hogs, or both, on hands to be disposed of before April first.

It has been pointed out that not only is the change more fair toward the farmer, but the time of year makes the work of the assessors more pleasant and effective, and they can complete their work in shorter time than where hampered by the severe winter weather.

A number of well known local farmers who have been queried upon the subject have expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the change in the law, and believe that it was a step toward justice to all when the tax lien day was changed from February to April.

IS RECOVERING VERY SLOWLY

Mr. George Haynes, local furniture dealer who has been confined to the Mt. Carmel hospital for several weeks, is now slowly recovering his lost strength, and is able to eat a few solids after a 32-day diet of milk.

It will still be several weeks, in all probability, before he is able to return to his home in this city.

This is the second time he has been in the hospital within the past year.

HE WANTED OFF AT MT. STERLING

Washington citizens who returned from Columbus on the evening train Monday report an amusing incident which occurred at Mt. Sterling, where a man sat and watched the other passengers get off and was so intent in using his eyes that he himself forgot to get off until the train was moving.

Then he hurried through the car and the brakeman signalled the engineer to stop. The signal failed to reach the engineer. Again he signalled, all the while trying to keep the now thoroughly excited man from leaping from the train.

By applying the emergency brake, he succeeded in forcing the train to a standstill and the man leaped off, landing upon the slippery embankment. For a moment he fought to regain his balance, and then rolled over and over until he landed against the fence at the bottom of the embankment.

As the train pulled away he arose, shook the snow from his clothing, and stood and looked as if he only half understood his sudden departure from the train into the snow drift.

RECEPTION GIVEN THE NEW MEMBERS

Fully 300 persons took part in the big reception tendered the new members of the Christian church Monday evening, and 110 converts were present.

The meeting opened with evangelistic services, followed by baptismal services in which a class of six were baptized. A fellowship meeting came next and all of the new members were lined up and a general old-time handshaking took place. A short program of recitations and song added pleasure to the evening. Before closing, refreshments were served and the meeting ended with prayer by Rev. Boblitt.

A large crowd escorted Rev. Boblitt to the train and held a song service at the depot before the evangelist left for his home.

MINISTER GETS SALARY INCREASE

For the second time during his five years pastorate in this city, Rev. A. W. West's services at the First Baptist church have been recognized by an increase in salary, the last increase being made at a recent meeting of the official body of the church.

During his pastorate Rev. West has made a great many friends in this and adjoining towns, and his efforts have been rewarded by a greatly increased membership and interest in the local church.

LADIES' PHYSICAL TRAINING CLASS.

The Ladies' Physical Training class of one hundred members is doing splendid work under the efficient direction of Y. M. C. A. Director McClung. Beside the regular work there is much interest shown in volley ball. Teams are being organized and some exciting games are promised.

The Executive Board, at a recent meeting, employed Miss Gladys Butcher pianist for the class.

If there are any ladies interested in the work and who wish to join the class, they may do so by giving their names to the secretary and paying an entrance fee of fifty cents to the treasurer.

Dues are payable the last week of each month. Miss Vera Veal, treasurer, will receive dues at the Midland National bank for the benefit of those who cannot conveniently pay at class. Withdrawn members may be reinstated by payment of back dues.

Classes meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 and Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 4:00, at the Armory hall.

SCHOOLS FAILURES.—HILL.

Inaccuracy and Impracticability Are Chief Charges.

St. Paul.—"Our common and high schools are dismal failures. Accuracy is not taught in the schools, and accuracy is the main essential to success," said James J. Hill at the annual banquet of the Northwestern Yale Alumni association. Continuing he said:

"The time must come when public educational institutions must be more practical. My first public advice to all schools would be to simplify the curriculum by separating all 'facts that are so' from 'facts that are not so.'"

Period of Most Intellectual Vigor.

Recent medical statistics as to the age when man has the most intellectual vigor give interesting results. It is from forty to fifty-six years that the most brilliant things have been accomplished by the majority of humans. Chemists and physicians have made brilliant discoveries at forty. Poets have accomplished masterpieces at forty-four, and novelists two years later. Famous warriors average forty-seven; musicians are most brilliant at forty-eight and actors at the same age. Moralists are greatest at fifty-one, politicians at fifty-three, humorists at fifty-six, thus demonstrating that the last thing one learns is how to amuse one's fellows.—New York Times.

Their Hops.

"I shouldn't think there would be any difficulty in renting haunted houses to actors."

"Why not?"

"Because actors like to see the ghost walk."—Baltimore American.

Bluffing.

It is no use bluffing unless you have something to bluff with, and then you have no need to.

The Crowning Mistake.

A woman who writes a great deal for various publications recently enumerated the seven mistakes of matrimony.

This recalls the faithful Italian servant who called at a nearby house and said to the owner, "There are twenty-seven reasons why my master cannot visit you today. The first is, he is dead."

And the bachelor grouch at our elbow says there may be seven mistakes of matrimony, but the first is getting married.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Obstinate.

"Why don't you quit smoking, old chap? You know it hurts you."

"Certainly. But every time I make up my mind to do it somebody comes around and tells me I ought to."—Exchange.

Wonderful.

A celebrated vocalist was in a motor-car accident one day. A paper, recording the accident, said:

"We are happy to state that he was able to appear the following evening in three pieces."

Olympic Games.

It is generally believed that the first Olympic games were held in the year B. C. 1453.

MASTERS OF MEN.

Go forth into the busy world and love it, interest yourself in its life, mingle kindly with its joys and sorrows, try what you can do for men rather than what you can make them do for you, and you will know what it is to have men yours better than if you were their king or master.—Brook Herford.

In Social Circles

Mrs. Lewis Syester, of Hagarstown, Md., was a most charming and interesting guest of honor at a reception luncheon, given Tuesday at one o'clock by Mrs. Howard Griffith at the Cherry hotel.

The hostess' exquisite taste was evinced in the central decoration of the table, a mass of pink tulips and white hyacinths, fragrantly suggestive of the approach of spring. Pink tulips were at each of the ten covers laid, and an elaborate four course luncheon served.

Seated with Mrs. Griffith and the honor guest were: Miss Ruth Stimmon, of Lafayette, Ind.; Mesdames Louise Stutson Potter, Gerrie Spragg, Pearce Ballard, Conrad Schweitzer, Miss Emma Jackson, Janet Stutson, Jean Howat.

TRIO OF FUR THIEVES ARE TAKEN TO THE WORKHOUSE

The three fur thieves, and the men suspected of being the trio who pulled off the daring hold-up at the Cisco postoffice in December, were Tuesday morning escorted to Xenia and started in the work of making brooms for a few months.

The men, Arthur O'Neill, William Dudley and Alf Skidmore, were escorted by Officer Baughn and Mayor Coffey, and took their trip to the workhouse in a very cheerful manner.

The trio are the men who entered a plea of guilty upon a charge of stealing some $40 worth of pelts from the Dahl barn near the Cox livery barn, and later sold the furs to a Columbus dealer. O'Neill and Skidmore were given $50 and the costs and 60 days in the workhouse, while Dudley, for whom a strong plea was made by his mother, drew $25 and the costs and 30 days in the workhouse.

While held prisoner upon the charge of larceny, O'Neill and Dudley were identified as the two men who had entered the Barr store or Cisco postoffice, last December, and held up four men, robbed the postoffice and store cash boxes, and made their escape.

The local authorities held the men for a few days to await the appearance of a man named McAdams, who was among those robbed, and who was wanted to identify the men in order that charges might be brought against them for the crime.

McAdams could not be located, and the three men were taken to the workhouse. However, before they are released there may be further action upon the part of the local authorities which will result in their being tried for the charge of holding up the men at Cisco and also robbing the store and postoffice at that place. O'Neill's father is serving a life term in the Ohio pen for killing his wife, and Skidmore's father resides near Oeta, where he is engaged in farming. His uncle was killed by a man named Smith, in pike county, a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Carmen, of Selden are receiving congratulations upon the birth of 8½ pound son.

Mrs. Effie Reynolds and Mrs. G. M. Oliver sang solos.

PEEVED CROWD MAKING WISHES

That the generosity of several persons who united in paying car fare for the Thomas brothers, of South Plymouth, was not appreciated Saturday evening, has been demonstrated by the fact that the pair of chicken thieves, instead of paying their way home, took the money and played pool until late Saturday night, when they started out in the blizzard and walked to Plymouth.

And the ones who "put up" are peeved. They think they have reason to be peeved and for that reason they are now hoping that the pair of ungrateful lovers of yellow legged chickens will disregard the warning issued by Probate Judge Allen and remain in the county after Wednesday night, so they can be punished.

LOSES SIGHT OF EYE DURING NIGHT

A few mornings ago when Mrs. Chas. Brune, of Canal Winchester, who was the guest of County Commissioner Lewis Perrill and wife arose from her slumbers, she was horrified to discover that the sight of one eye was gone.

The shock was so great that she terminated her visit at once and returned to her home to undergo special treatment for the sad affliction. The case is said to be a rare one, as the complete loss of sight in a single night is extremely uncommon.

Mr. Elmer Zimmerman brought in his bob sled to drive the girls out, and Edwards Hopkins also accompanied them.

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS MEET

At a meeting in Memorial hall Monday night, a camp of United Spanish-American War Veterans was mustered in by an officer of that organization from Columbus. Owing to the unfavorable weather, a small attendance was the result.

There being 13 men present to be mustered in, and some superstition on the part of some, Junior Vice-Commander Lon Stevenson, who lost a leg some time ago, agreed to make the number 12½, and business proceeded at once. Those mustered in were: Glenn Arnold, Howard Bales, Johnson Cabbage, Ed Douglass, Sam Lydy, J. H. Mitchner, Wade Keaton, Ward Pine, Lon Stevenson, Bert Shimp, Harve W. Smith, Henry Fadra and John Gillum.

MEN'S SUPPER NOTES

The treat-in store for those who attend the men's annual supper at Grace church Thursday evening may be realized when it is known that capon is usually found only on the bill-o-fare at exclusive hotels.

No baskets will be filled Thursday night until after the supper rush is over. No exceptions made.

The new self-rising flour, from which Emma Marchant will make her famous hot biscuits, is donated by the Washington Milling company.

The supper would not be complete without Red Bird coffee, furnished by the Midland Grocery Company.

The best cooks in the city are responding to the call made for cakes. Boston brown bread, roasting capons and other like assistance.

MEETS WITH ACCIDENT AWAY FROM HOME

Miss Luella Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Riley, of Fayette Nursery, who was called to New Lexington last week by the death of a friend, had the misfortune to meet with a serious accident on Sunday. She slipped on the ice, sustaining a hard fall, in which her leg was broken between the ankle and the knee.

The plucky girl wrote cheerfully of the accident to her parents, assuring them that she expects to be home next week, and in the meantime her New Lexington friends are taking the best of care of her.

"I'm glad to see you home so early," said the lady of the house. "Now, you remember I told you to be sure and stop in and inquire how poor Mrs. Brown was getting along. How is she?"

The Best Fortune Teller.
The quest of noblemen for wealth in America has been talked about for decades, but few, if any, can rival Baron Assezcash in being witty in a practical way.

Miss de Millynnus, his prospective wife, was entertaining the baron one evening and apropos of lovers' nothings she asked:

"Did you, baron, ever go to a fortune teller?"
"Yes, mees, many times. But the last time was best."
"Where did you go?"
"I went to the probate court to find out about your grandfather's will."—

TAX LIEN DAY SET ON OLD APRIL DATE

Legislature Acts on Recommendations of Governor Cox.

BOTH HOUSES GET INTO ACTION

Mills Municipal Ownership Bond Bill Passed as Amended in Conference. Governor's Bond Tax Proposition Within Provisions of Smith One Per Cent Act—Big Flood Measure Signed—Doings of the Solons.

Columbus, O., Feb. 17.—In accordance with Governor Cox's recommendations there were introduced and passed by both houses of the Ohio legislature the Cahill bill, changing the time of meeting of the budget commission from the first Monday in June to the first Monday in August, by which time the duplicate will be completed; the Edging bill, restoring the old date, the first Monday in April, as the day when taxes are to be listed; the Doffin bill, authorizing leases of oil, coal and gas rights on school lands by the state auditor on approval of the governor and attorney general, and the Reid bill, requiring a tax levy in every political subdivision to provide sinking fund and interest for all bonds issued.

The proposal to lease oil and mineral rights on school lands, which would have been leased at ridiculously low rentals, based usually on what the land was worth for crop raising 100 years ago, was first made by State Auditor Donahy, who saw in it a chance to create a large state revenue.

Representative Reid of Fayette, who fathered the governor's bond tax bill, went the governor one better and stipulated in it that the interest and redemption tax, to be levied incidental to the issuance of bonds, must be within the 10-cent limit of the Smith 1 per cent law. The governor's message did not allude to that feature.

Because of gross errors in sectional numberings of the Duffey judicial salary bill, Governor Cox vetoed it. A corrected bill was passed.

Mills Bill Amended.

Acceptance of the conference report on the Mills municipal ownership bond bill passed that measure, but stripped it of every provision except permission to sell public utility bonds in denominations of $100 or more to citizens if there are no bidders when offered in larger denominations to bond buyers.

Municipalities desiring to build or buy utilities must proceed as set forth in the constitution, instead of having statutory guidance. Bonds must be based on the utility earnings and assets solely. The bondholders will have right to ask the court to turn the utilities over to them to operate for 20 years if there is default in interest.

The moment John Kramer of Richmond introduced the probe committee bill to prohibit members of the legislature holding extra state employments there was a scramble to punch holes in it. Several amendments offered were adopted. As passed by the house, members can not accept jobs under the executive and administrative branch of the state government.

ment. The penalty provided is forfeiture of membership in the legislature, an unenforceable provision, for, under the constitution, each house is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members and could remit this penalty.

The big Vanderheide flood protection bill was signed by the governor and the presiding officers. Governor Cox used two pens, which he gave Judge John A. McMahon, author of the bill, and John H. Patterson of Dayton.

The general appropriation bill, carrying $8,762,664.31, passed both houses. The conference committee's report was agreed to.

The house, by resolution, expressed sympathy for Dr. M. J. Jenkins of Madison, who is recovering in Grant hospital from a serious attack of pneumonia.

SUNDAY USES PRISON SLANG

Columbus, O., Feb. 17.—Rev. Billy Sunday gave a short talk in prison slang to the 1,600 prisoners in the Ohio penitentiary. Said Billy: "When you guys get out of the stir here, beat it quick, see! Don't be a repeater. Pass up the old gang. Let the smoke wagons alone. Don't give the city dicks a chance to put up a job on you; pass up the soup and yegg stuff; steer clear of the elbow men and gun men. Don't monkey with coke decks, hit the straight and narrow, hand the devil a fast one on the bean and be a regular guy."

BANDITS FOUND ON THE U. S. SIDE

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 17.—General Scott received a telegram from one of his officers in New Mexico stating that Maximo Castillo's bandit band had been located on the ranch of the Palomas Land and Cattle company, an American concern, south of Dog Springs, New Mexico. The officer said that rebel troops were in close pursuit and that the Castillo band was exhausted. Pancho Villa, who is still in Juarez, also received advice that Castillo's band is on the Palomas ranch.

TRACE SMALLPOX TO BIG REVIVAL

Wellston, O., Feb. 17.—To prevent a further spread of smallpox, the health authorities of Jackson have ordered the schools closed and no public gatherings of any kind will be permitted for two weeks at least. The infection is thought to have had its origin among the many visitors who attended a revival held there for five weeks recently.

MORE BALL DOPE

New York, Feb. 17.—If the Federal league is successful this year, there will be another club in Greater New York when the season of 1915 opens. This club will be operated in the Bronx, with financial backing supplied by the Ward company, which already has contracted to finance the Brooklyn Federals. The Bronx or New York club will play at grounds directly opposite the Ward bakery.

BANDIT JENNINGS HELPS MRS. BOND

Oklahoma City, Okla., February 17.—The feature of the day, other than the testimony of Senator Gore, was the appearance on the stand of Al J. Jennings, ex-outlaw and present candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket, as a witness for Mrs. Bond. Jennings contradicted the testimony of Mitch Bonner, Oklahoma City banker, and said that in Jim Jacobs' conversation with Bonner, Jacobs did not say he would "call off" the Gore charges for $25,000.

On cross-examination Jennings said that Jacobs, termed the "brains" of the alleged conspiracy against Gore, managed Jennings' campaign for county attorney two years ago.

Sensor Gore answered every question put to him by Judge Stuart and Attorney E. J. Giddings for the plaintiff without the slightest hesitation, emphasizing his denials of the charges against him by gestures with clenched hands and changes in tone.

Speaking in a loud, clear voice, Senator Gore denied every essential part of the testimony of Mrs. Bond, Dr. Earp and the other members of the alleged conspiracy against him. His testimony was the climax to the sensational trial. The plaintiff will offer three rebuttal witnesses this afternoon, and the arguments of attorneys are not expected to occupy over a day.

CREAMER BOOMS EX-GOV. HARMON

Columbus, O., Feb. 17.—D. S. Creamer of Columbus, former state treasurer, issued a statement in which he said he would not consider being a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor if Judson Harmon would oppose Governor Cox at the primaries next August. Creamer says Harmon is the logical man to contest with Cox for the Democratic nomination.

STOP TRAIN AND LYNCH A NEGRO

Love Station, Miss., Feb. 17.—A mob of 50 masked men held up an Illinois Central train here, covered the train crew and all the passengers with revolvers and shotguns, took from the Desoto county sheriff two negroes, Buck McGuirk and Bill Phillips, accused of ambushing J. H. Ingram three weeks ago, hanged the first-named negro and turned Phillips loose. The two negroes were being brought from Batesville to Horndog for preliminary trial.

The Fox's Useful Brush. Though it is only a useless and rather stupid trophy to the hunter, the fox's brush is of value in many ways as well as an ornament to the fox. His broad, bushy tail is the rudder which enables him to twist and turn at any moment when running at full speed. In approaching a wall or a hedge or a ditch which has to be jumped the fox gains additional impetus by rapidly twirling his tail round, just as an aeroplane propeller revolves. Again, in climbing trees the fox uses his tail as a balance or a sort of fifth leg, and finally in curling himself up to sleep he covers his head warm and cozily with his brush. —London Chronicle.

B. F. KEITH'S

Joseph Jefferson, son of the late, distinguished actor by the same name, will appear at B. F. Keith's Theater, Columbus, week of Feb. 23, in "Poor Old Jim." This is a tabloid play of more than usual merit, telling how a man was saved from drink through the clever ruse of his wife. Miss Blanche Bender will play the role of the wife. George Wright Jr., a clever young actor of international reputation, will play the part of the physician who aids the wife in effecting a cure.

Ismed, the wonderful Turkish pianist, who was to have appeared at Keith's during the week of Feb. 16, postponed his engagement until a week later, hence will appear on this bill. Ismed is the most celebrated pianist of the eastern world, and it is fortunate that he has been secured for an engagement in Columbus, during his brief engagement in America. Ismed, picturesque, and quaint, makes a striking stage picture. His technique is faultless and his selections, well suited to vaudeville audiences.

Kirk and Fogerty, the ever popular entertainers, will appear in their new act called "Fifteen Minutes of Patter and Song." Miss Kirk is one of the prettiest girls on the stage, and wears stunning costumes. Mr. Fogerty is a typical comedian, and the two are admirable foils for each other.

The Avla Comedy Four, a quartet of genuine fun makers, will present "The New Teacher," an act which teems with comedy, and abounds in clean fun.

A real treat will be offered by Bankoff, erstwhile dancing partner of Pavlova. Bankoff will be assisted by a beautiful young woman who dances with grace and ease and who is able to present the latest dances in the most pleasing manner. The latest in South American, and Spanish dances, as well as the newest of the American tango steps will be carefully demonstrated.

SUNDAY PICTURES. Out of town Sunday visitors in Columbus should not fail to visit B. F. Keith's Theater on East Gay St., where the newest and best motion pictures are shown from 1:30 in the afternoon until 10:30 at night.

WOMAN COLLAPSES

Cleveland, O., Feb. 17.—Mrs. Marie Heuttl, held in the county jail on a charge of murdering her husband, Carl Heuttl, collapsed in her cell. Heuttl was shot a few hours after he obtained a divorce several weeks ago. He died Saturday night. Her condition is serious.

DEAD IDENTIFIED

Cleveland, O., Feb. 17.—Another identification of the mysterious "Mary Brown" was made at the county morgue when Dr. R. J. Armstrong, a dentist, looked at the body and from dental work became convinced that the girl was Hazel Schmitt, who worked for some time in a restaurant, and his wife confirmed the identification. The girl committed suicide in the postoffice here a week ago.

FARMERS PAYING EXCESSIVE RATES ON MORTGAGES

Washington, Feb. 17.—Senator Fletcher, speaking at a joint hearing of house and senate banking and currency committees on rural credits, said that $6,000,000,000 is owned by the farmers of the United States, of which $2,000,000,000 was secured by mortgages on their farms. On this tremendous amount, he declared, the rate of interest was from 6 to 24 per cent, in addition to unjust charges made by the bankers and agents in arranging the loans. He read letters to prove that in many states the total of the mortgages on farms equals the total assets.

PERSISTENCE.

So few people succeed greatly because so few people can conceive a great end and work toward that end without deviating and without tiring. But we all know that the man who works for money day and night gets rich and the man who works day and night for no matter what kind of material power gets the power. It is the same with the deeper, more spiritual issues, which make for happiness and every intangible success. It is only the dreams of those who dream faintly that do not come true.—Arthur Symons.

Father of Fox Hunting.
John Warde of Westerham is generally believed to have been the father of fox hunting. He was master of the bounds for more than half a century, and then he sold his pack for the record price of 2,000 guineas. "This mighty hunter," writes Gibson Thompson, "died in 1838 at the ripe old age of eighty-six at his house on Charles street, Berkeley square. One of the portraits of him at Squerries court, that by James Green, is in the dining room. His favorite bounds were two. Glory and Beauty; the picture shows him with but one, and he is supposed to be soiling himself. 'My Beauty' hath departed, but my Glory remains."—London Chronicle.

DEFENSE COST US BILLION IN DECADE

Maintenance of the Military Establishment Comes High.

CHAIRMAN HAY MAKES REPORT

Estimates of the Secretary of War Cut to the Bone, According to the Head of the House Committee On Military Affairs—Recommendation For an Increase of the Army Does Not Find Favor.

Washington, Feb. 17.—More than a billion dollars has been expended for the maintenance of the military establishment of the United States in the past 10 years, according to a report made on the military appropriation bill by Representative Hay of Virginia, chairman of the house committee on military affairs.

This year's bill is notable for the fact that it contains no authorization for extraordinary expenditures, despite the rumors of war that have been in the air for the past, few months. The estimates of the secretary of war were cut to the bone and the appropriation authorized for war purposes in the fiscal year that will begin July 1 next is less by $25,000 than the amount allowed for the purpose in the current fiscal year.

At the beginning of the session Secretary Garrison estimated that $104,947,758 would be needed by the war department in the new fiscal year. Last year's appropriation amounted to $94,214,145. The appropriation proposed foots up to $94,241,173, which is $10,733,000 less than the amount called for by the secretary of war.

Among recommendations by Secretary Garrison was an appropriation to maintain an army of 85,000 men, exclusive of the Philippine scouts, the quartermaster corps and the hospital corps. This would have provided an increase of about 17,000 men in the army. This appropriation was refused by the house committee. "The committee is not able to see the necessity for this material increase of the army," said Chairman Hay in his report.

DINNER BY PARCEL POST.

Woman Offers Complete Chicken Feast For Four.

Boston.—A woman of Durham, Me., is advertising a cooked dinner of chicken, plum pudding, gravy, hard sauce, cranberry sauce, mince pie, pumpkin pie and vegetables delivered any time by parcel post.

She put a little advertisement in a local newspaper, and orders began to pour in upon her at once. She sends enough of all these good things for four people in one package. All that is necessary to prepare the dinner for the table is to warm it.

Coward.
A witty judge declared recently that "a patriot was a man who refused to button his wife's blouse. A martyr," he went on, "is one who attempts and fails, while a hero tries and succeeds." "Then what is a coward?" asked a curious bystander.
"Oh, a coward," replied the judge, "is a man who remains single so that he won't have to try."—Cleveland Leader.

Oregon's Governor to Act Because of Lawless Element.

Salem, Ore.—Disincorporation of the town of Copperfield, Ore., because it "is in the hands of a lawless element" has been ordered undertaken by the attorney general, Governor West announced.

Copperfield was put under martial law after the closing of saloons there, by state troops under direction of Miss Fern Hobbs, the governor's secretary.

Poor Fellow.
Lydia found her father in the library.

"Father," she asked, "did Robert call on you this morning?"
"Yes, he did," replied the father, "but I couldn't make much out of what he said."
"What do you mean?" asked Lydia.
"Well," explained the old gentleman, "I understood him to say that he wanted to marry me and that you had enough to support him, so I told him to go home and write it out."—Lippincott's.

Republican or Progressive What's the Difference?

What is the difference between these two parties? In spite of the fact that the forming of a new party is of tremendous importance to everyone in the state and country, it is probable that the people who can tell you definitely how the platforms of those two parties in this state differed when they were drawn up in 1912, or how that new party differed from any one of the others, are very, very few in number. And yet you cannot be an intelligent citizen unless you are one of those few.

The platform of this newer party, and of the Democratic, and Republican, and Socialist, and Socialist-Labor, and Prohibition parties are all given in our new OHIO ALMANAC, the only Handbook of its kind issued. These platforms fill less than six pages of its hundreds, and the others are filled with equally important information. Altogether there are over 100,000 facts in the book, everyone of them as practical as it is interesting. And every one is something that you will want to know some day. The complete index makes every one of them as easily found as though it stood alone in the book.

You get them all for 25; by mail, postpaid, 30c.

Explosive Diamonds.
A curious fact about diamonds is that it is not uncommon for the crystals to explode as soon as they are brought up from the mine. Sometimes they have burst in the pockets or the warm hands of miners, due to the effect of increased temperature. Large stones are more likely to do this than small ones. Valuable stones have been destroyed in this way. To safeguard them some dealers place large diamonds in raw potatoes for safe transport from South Africa.

ARE USING MORE CORN FERTILIZER

A few years ago the use of fertilizer in Fayette county for the purpose of producing greater yields of corn, was very limited, but many farmers having tried fertilizer for corn and found results satisfactory, are increasing their fertilized acreage year by year.
One of the county's most prominent farmers has just purchased 20 tons of fertilizer to apply to his corn ground. This purchase is for one of a number of his farms.
The use of fertilizer for wheat in this county is also comparatively recent, and the use became general just a few years ago. At the present, however, very few farmers think of sowing wheat without an application of commercial fertilizer.

SLAYER OF CHILD STILL IN PRISON

Mrs. Bertha Douglas Hutchinson, the Mt. Sterling woman who murdered her infant babe in this city last month and consigned its tiny body to a vault near the stove factory, and is now awaiting action of the grand jury upon a charge of murder in the first degree, is taking her imprisonment very quietly.
She has a good appetite and her appearance is much better than before she entered the county jail. She makes little complaint against her imprisonment, and has apparently resigned herself to her fate, whatever it may be, although at no time has she given the impression that she realizes the enormity of her crime.

FOUR POSTOFFICES THREE APPLICANTS

Only three persons for four postoffices! This is the record of the Civil Service examination held in this city for fourth-class postmaster in Fayette county, and there was one less applicant than postoffices.
The fourth class offices to be filled by Civil Service tests in this county are Madison Mills, Cooks, Good Hope and Selden. Just who the three applicants are, has not been given out. The examinations were conducted by the local Civil Service commissioner, and several weeks will probably arise before the results are known.

Limitations as to Time.
A well known preacher was making a pedestrian excursion in a wild rural district. Feeling rather hungry, he looked at his watch to see if it was nearly dinner time, but found the watch was stopped. Just then, happening to meet with a country boy, he asked, "What time is it, my lad?" The boy replied, "Just 12, sir." "Only 12?" said the minister. "I thought it was more." "It never is more round these parts," said the boy simply. "It begins at 1."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Careful.
The case before the court involved a gang of thieves, and one of the accused, a woman, had been found guilty of keeping and maintaining a "fence." The penalty was two years in state's prison. As the judge finished pronouncing the sentence, the prisoner called out to her husband, who had managed to get off by pleading an alibi and was among the spectators: "Don't forget, Bill, to take the plumes out of my winter hat and put 'em away in camphor."—New York Post.

Art Defended.
They were in a picture gallery. The man was from out of town and rather inclined to be critical. The girl was a Cleveland and filled with civic pride.
They paused in front of a striking picture.
"Ah, that's an old master!" exclaimed the man.
"Maybe it is," defended the girl, "but you can see for yourself that the frame is perfectly new."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Putting Them at Ease.
Precedence is not the only puzzle in official and social circles in any city, but to say the right thing at the right time is equally necessary.
"To make mistakes in speech is suicidal," said a state department official recently. "Let it not be as in the case of Mrs. Brody, who gave a party, and when all the guests were in the parlor she entered with a beaming smile and said:
"Do make yourselves at home, ladies. I'm at home myself, and I wish you all were."—Washington Star.

PROHIBITION UP AS A BIG ISSUE

Plans of Temperance Advocates Stir Congress Leaders.

GREAT WAVE IS NATIONAL

Referendum to States For Constitutional Amendment is Expected—Nine States Already Dry and Four More May Get Into Column This Year. Eighteen Are Half Dry.

Washington.—The spread of prohibition sentiment in the United States in the past year has made a deep impression on leaders in congress. The events of that period when viewed in the light of the ambitious program that the temperance advocates have set for themselves in the immediate future are causing much serious thinking and some anxiety on the part of members of congress who look beyond their noses.

In fact, many of the leaders in the national legislature believe that they already see the prohibition question looming as a national issue. They fear the time is near when a constitutional amendment providing for national prohibition will be submitted by congress to a referendum of the states.

Such an amendment is now pending in both the house and the senate, and the promotion of it through congress is the accomplishment toward which all the anti-liquor forces are looking most hopefully. By many of the clearest of the crusade leaders doubt is expressed whether the time is yet ripe for pushing the constitutional amendment resolution, or whether it would be better to continue to strengthen the foundations of the measure by bringing additional states more definitely into the prohibition column.

But that the test eventually will come in congress and that the national legislators will be subjected to pressure such as they have seldom if ever experienced in the growing conviction in Washington.

SENATOR W. S. KENYON, A LEADING ADVOCATE OF PROHIBITION.

The fear is expressed by leaders of both parties that when the test does finally come congress will do as it did in two important instances last year when called on to pass upon the liquor question—disregard its own convictions and vote to appease public clamor.

It has long been a matter of comment in Washington that the only way in which temperance legislation can be prevented in congress is by holding the bills in committee and by keeping them from the floor of the house or senate. When the average member of congress is face to face with the liquor question and a delegation of temperance advocates he may drink like a fish himself, but he will promptly record his vote in favor of the dries.

That at least was the history of the two most important developments of the past year in congress. The passage of the Jones-Works excise law for the District of Columbia and the enactment of the Webb-Kenyon law to prohibit the shipment of liquor into prohibition territory for sale were regarded by the temperance crusaders as red letter events on their last year's calendar.

They were cited not only over the laws might accomplish, but over the way in which their enactment demonstrated the hold of the anti upon the national legislature.

The ease with which the passage of these laws was obtained has also left its impression on congress. Few members dared to oppose the measures in the open, and both went through by overwhelming votes, the Webb-Kenyon bill over the veto of President Taft. The opposition was confined chiefly to the committee rooms, but when the bills were pushed into the open members lined up quickly in favor of them. They believed this was the part of political wisdom.

As the result of the passage of the Jones-Works bill the city of Washington now finds itself on Sundays as dry as a burnt bone. A club member cannot even get a drink in his own club house on Sunday.

Newspapers and Geography.

A correspondent, writing on the subject of a daily paper as a geography, states: "I have carefully gone over twenty-four pages, with their 168 columns, noting the places named. The list numbers 1,447, of which England claims 622, Scotland 64, Ireland 20, Europe 263, Asia and Australasia 163, Africa 110, North America 159, South America 37. In point of space they range, of course, not only from China to Peru, but from pole to pole."—London Chronicle.

Our 1914 Ohio Almanac

Real facts are way beyond fiction in fascination when they are selected by people who know the significance of what they are doing. It is such people as that who compiled this complete encyclopedia of Ohio for you.

INDUSTRY

There are about six hundred thousand people in Ohio's factories alone, there are many more thousands on farms. And they are all engaged in producing food and clothing and other necessities for you.

POLITICS

There were about one and one-quarter million votes cast for president in Ohio at the last election. How they were divided and how other officials and various amendments to the constitution were voted on in this state and in your county is of more than passing interest.

LEGISLATION

Tax laws, pure food laws, the sort of legislation each of the six parties in the state stand for, is not only of interest to read and understand but it affects you personally and vitally.

UNIVERSITIES

The universities and the schools of Ohio are doing wonderful work. Do you know very much about them, or how many boys and girls and young men and young women of the state they are reaching?

These are just a few of the lines of general interest treated in our new 1914 Ohio Almanac, and all of them treated with clarity and conciseness, which means that a busy man can take time to learn about them. We offer our readers the Handbook for only 25 cents; by mail, 30 cents.
